Arriving in Colonial America

1745

William Maness Sr. and Jr. arrived in Colonial America (Pa.) shortly after the Battle of Culloden, 1745 (ca. 1747) sailing aboard the ship "Hope's End" (the ship's name is disputed to this day). They sailed out of Kilodnan, Isle of Arran, Scotland. From there the two migrated to present-day Moore County, North Carolina. Everette Maness, then migrating to Forsyth County, Georgia in the early 1800's. Family is still believed to be there.

Some information gives William Sr.'s full name as William MacClannee (McNees) Manis. Born in 1703 in Wales. Orphaned at the age of 3. Then sent to the colonies as a bound boy, via England about 1714. Migrated from Pa. to Orange County, North Carolina about 1747, where he was recorded to be in 1755. He then migrated to Moore County, North Carolina about 1765. He settled in what was then Cumberland County, North Carolina between Bear Creek and Deep River.

Jacob Manis was the brother of Seth Manis born 1762 and son of William Manis 1738-1832. I want to verify that Jacob was the father of Lazarus Lawson Mainous/Manis b.4-14-1808 and Silas Hale Mainous/Manis d.1845. Were there any other siblings? Any information would be appreciated.

Lazarus is my ggg grandfather. My grandfather's name is Bruce Mainous and his father was William Lazarus Mainous whose father was John Tyler Mainous whose father was Lazarus Lawson Mainous.

Thank you,

About FamilySearch Pedigree Resource File:

The Pedigree Resource File is a new lineage linked database of records available on compact disc containing family history records submitted by individuals through FamilySearch Internet Genealogy Service. Family information is organized in family groups and pedigrees and includes submitted notes and sources. Many charts and reports can be printed from this data. Each disc contains about 1.1 million names. With the publication of every five discs, a master index for those discs will be published and packaged with that set of discs. With the publication of every 25 discs, a master index for those discs will also be published and packaged with that volume of discs. Discs may be purchased as sets or volumes.

Military Service

He "migrated to NC about 1765 by wagon train, which stopped at the site of Smyrna Methodist Church north of Robinson Grassy Creek. He settled near Bear Creek, in what was then Cumberland County, and owned 200 acres of land near Carter's Mill- April 27th, 1767. By May 4th, 1769 owned another 100 acres in what is now Robbins. He later bought more land, owning a total of about 600 acres. His occupation was - Farmer. He enlisted on July 28, 1775 as a private, First Battalion of the North Carolina Line(Col. Thomas Clark's Battalion), part of the Continental Army. This was a dangerous move, as most of the population of Moore County were Scots, who were loyal to the British King. He was one of only about a half dozen local men who volunteered to fight for the American cause. He appears to have fought in northern campaigns and in the guerilla fighting that continued until 1783. Military records show his last pay period to include Feb. 1, 1785, which would indicate that he was one of the few men who stayed on "in readiness" as a peacekeeper. The 1790 Census shows him to have six sons and seven or eight daughters. Some of these children may have been adopted or the children of other family members. After the war, William served as Township Constable. He died in 1832 at the age of 94, and is buried north of Robbins off the Robbins-High Falls Rd. in the Maness Family Cemetery near Pleasant Hill Church (Moore County, NC)" Source: James Peterson.

"... I will tell you that the senior William MANESS first appeared in the Moore County area comes from ABSTRACTS OF MINUTES OF THE COURT OF PLEAS AND QUARTER SESSIONS OF CUMBERLAND CO., NC, Oct. 1755-Jan. 1779. On page 175, "May 21, 1765, Wm. MANUS (sic) is appointed constable in Capt. Cheney's District." This William is believed to have been William Jr. Also on the only surviving Tax List for Cumberland County for the period 1754-1776 is for the year 1767. On this list appeared William MINUS (Maness) and William MINUS Jr. We also find another mention of a William MANESS, Sr. was in a Land Grant from the Governor of NC in the year 1772. 100 acres of land was granted to Simeon Hart on Bear Creek in Moore County, adjoining the 100 acres grant to William MANESS, etc. A later 1783 tax list for Cumberland County, also contains a William MINUS Jr. William MINUS Jr. Wm Maness did not leave a will, but his administration of his estate was granted to Wm. MANIS (sic). Assumed to be Wm. Jr. a Geo. Glascock was his security, in the amt. of 50 pounds. These two Maness' came from Pennsylvania to NC in the mid 1760's." Source: Juanita Kesler

Wm Manes Jr

WILLIAM³ MANESS II (WILLIAM², JOHN¹)^{2,3} was born 1738 in Bedford Co, Virginia, and died 1832 in Moore Co, North Carolina.

Notes for WILLIAM MANESS II:

William Maness(Manis) was born 1738 and died in Moore County, North Carolina in 1832. During the Revolution he served with Col. Thomas Clark's 1st NC Battalion, having enlisted 7/28/1773. Records show that he served through most, or all, of the Revolution. Army accounts indicate that he was paid 9/1/1784 and 2/1/1785.

William was listed in 1790 census as having 14 children, 6 males, and 8 females; in 1767, he received a 200 acre land grant on Bear Creek, Moore Co., NC. During the Revolutionary War, William served with Col. Thomas Clark's 1st NC Battalion, having enlisted on 28 Jul 1773. Records show he served through most, if not all, of the war. Army records indicate payments were made to him on 1 Sep 1784 and 1785. William, Jr. migrated south from Pennsylvania to Moore Co., NC 1747 with his father. Another source attached to the book of Asa Maness states this migration took place in 1765. Which one is correct has yet to be discovered.

After arriving in North Carolina, he secured grants to large tracts of land along Bear Creek, in what was then Cumberland Co. These grants are among the earliest in the county as he was one of the first to settle in what is now Moore Co. A grant was made to William on 27 April 1767. This land, which contained 200 acres, lay in the vicinity of what is now the old Carter's Mill site. Another grant of land, containing 100 acres, was made to William on 4 May 1769 in what is now the town of Robbins, NC. Still another 100 acres were granted to him on Dec. 15, 1802. It is possible that one of these was a grant to his father, William Sr. and another to a son named William.

The first Federal Census for Moore Co., NC, 1790, lists fourteen members of this family other than William and his wife.

William Maness was a farmer, as were most of the early settlers. The term "farmer" did not mean exactly the same then as it does now. He cleared some of the virgin forest, hunted, fished, and almost entirely lived off the land.

When the Revolution broke out, William enlisted in Colonel Thomas Clark's Company of the First North Carolina Battalion. His enlistment record shows 28 July 1773, for three years. Army accounts of the North Carolina Line also show a payment made for the period of 1 Sep 1784 to 1 Feb 1785. It therefore can be assumed that he served during most, if not all, of the Revolution.

The Corn Story, as told by Sam Maner:

Seth a well established farmer in his own right had one price and one price only for corn, for his was the finest in the land it was always 50c a bushel no more no less well in 1806 there came a time of drought crops failed there was not corn to grind nor to plant except at the Manis farm the year before had brought an extra fine and plentiful crop Seth with his price of 50c no more no less was not selling his grain for other farmers were selling there's for 10c a bushel. Seth not selling much of the crop stored his for the following year. The bad times came and he had corn and corn to spare for his price was 50c no more no less. Families did not have it to pay now. In the town of Rodgersville. As the story goes, strangers from Knoxville came to town herein that Manis had corn to sell they came to the farm to buy all that he would sell... Making the bargain Manis agreed. they started to load the corn and Manis after pondering for a while changed his mind. After bidding the me on there way, he calls his neighbors and tells them to take what they need and pay him when they could. So goes the story of 50c no more no less....

Records show that in 1831, Seth's sons, William, John and Jesse, all acquired land on the North side of Clinch Mountain.

From a letter written by Samuel Jasper Manes it said "Grandfather Manes had 6 boys. Grandmothers name was Patsy Fields. My fathers name was Jacob, then William, John, George, James, and Jesse. Fathers, brothers, all but George, lived and died in Tenn. George got immensley rich and died in Searcy County, Arkansas.

My grandfather Seth, was a very peculiar man and had his price on everything. I remember his price for corn was 50 cents, no difference how low or high it would go just 50 cents was all he would take.

After a few years he had stored up a big lot of corn and a dry year came. One day, ten wagons drove up, drawn by two yoke of oxen. Each had come about 75 mile after corn. That was quite a distance over the rough roads of Tennessee. Grandfather told them they couldn't buy any of his corn. They insisted that they had come a long way and cared nothing for the price and had the money to pay him. He said, "I know you have the money, and that is just why you can't have my corn. My price for corn is 50 cents per bushel, no more no less, but I have neighbors here that haven't any money and they can't buy corn just anywhere like you men that have money, and I am going to save the corn for them, so he sold all his corn to the poor neighbors on the credit, and that trait has cropped up occasionally all along the line in the Manes Family.

Upon entering the service he described it in these words:

"We met at Bar Creek, a tributary stream of Deep River, I was drafted in the service. We march for the purpose of intercepting small parties of Tories and British which were going through the county and doing mischief. We went on through Chatham County and some other counties which I do not recollect. We crossed Cape Fear River twice in our route, we went on towards Willington. We marched a Southwest course marched and were outling Tories near Peedee River when we met with one Fannin, at a place called Bates Bridge. We, in the actin, had to retreat. We collected together after the Battle and marched towards Moore County where we arrived about the first of January, 1781. I served in the capacity of Private. I was gone four months.

I volunteered myself again first of Feb. 1781 under Capt. Williams and Col. Butler to go after Fannin and his men. The report was he was going to attack Hillsborough. We attacked Fannin at Lindsay Mill where we had a sharp action with him. He retreated and we did not take any of his men. We recruited our forces and still cautiously pursued him and his men on down towards Willington until our Col. thought it dangerous to follow him any further. We returned to Hillsborough, lay there for sometime, scouted about through the county after Tories and guarding the Town and neighborhood. We the marched for Moore County. We arrived home the first of May 1781.. I received no discharge, was dismissed and had been gone four months.

I served in the capacity of private sometime in the month of September 1781, I think about the middle as well as I now recollect. I volunteered myself again under Captain Williams and Col. Butler to march to Yorktown against the British. We marched to Hillsborough where we were stationed in waiting for Levies to come and join us but, while we lay there, we received news that Cornwallis had surrendered and we did not have to go. We then marched back and I was discharged, being gone one month and was never out anymore.

Seth moved from North Carolina to Hawkins Co., Tennessee before 1795 where he died in 1852. He lived seven miles north of Rogersville, Tennessee on the North side of Clinch Mountain. In 1831, records indicate that three of his sons, William, John and Jesse all acquired land on the North side of the mountain also. He and Patsy are buried at the old home place in Hawkins Co. DAR application in August 1996. The DAR chapter is in Russellville, Arkansas and membership was approved for the applicant in June 1986.

Murder Follows Quarrel

Aug 18, 1900, Anderson Indiana

Anderson Ind., Aug. 18. - Huston Manis, a young farmer, living southwest of Anderson, shot and instantly killed Irvin Lawson late yesterday afternoon.

Manis and his brother had been in town attending a trial of Marshall Lawson, a brother of deceased, who had been arrested for threatening to kill Manis with a shotgun. After the trial the Manis boys started home in their buggy. They were overtaken by Marshall, Ed, Irvin and Mack Lawson, and the quarrel was renewed. Marshal and Irvin attempted to pull the Manis boys out of their buggy, and, as they did so, Huston Manis shot Irvin Lawson twice through the body, killing him instantly. The Manis boys drove back to town and surrendered themselves to the police, and are now in jail. For many years Marshal and Irvin Lawson have been the terror of the neighborhood in which they lived and have been in innumerable fights. Manis claims he acted purely in self-defense.

It is extremely hard to read, gives no family data at all.

The Corn Story, as told by Sam Maner:

Seth a well established farmer in his own right had one price and one price only for corn, for his was the finest in the land it was always .50c a bushel no more no less well in 1806 there came a time of drought crops failed there was not corn to grind nor to plant except at the Manis farm the year before had brought an extra fine and plentiful crop Seth with his price of 50c no more no less was not selling his grain for other farmers were selling there's for 10c a bushel. Seth not selling much of the crop stored his for the following year. The bad times came and he had corn and corn to spare for his price was 50c no more no less. Families did not have it to pay now. In the town of Rogersville. As the story goes, strangers from Knoxville came to town herein that Manis had corn to sell they came to the farm to buy all that he would sell... Making the bargain Manis agreed. they started to load the corn and Manis after pondering for a while changed his mind. After bidding the me on there way, he calls his neighbors and tells them to take what they need and pay him when they could. So goes the story of 50c no more no less....

Records show that in 1831, Seth's sons, William, John and Jesse, all acquired land on the North side of Clinch Mountain.

From a letter written by Samuel Jasper Manes it said "Grandfather Manes had 6 boys. Grandmothers name was Patsy Fields. My fathers name was Jacob, then William, John, George, James, and Jesse. Fathers, brothers, all but George, lived and died in Tenn. George got immensley rich and died in Searcy County, Arkansas.

My grandfather Seth, was a very peculiar man and had his price on everything. I remember his price for corn was 50 cents, no difference how low or high it would go just 50 cents was all he would take.

After a few years he had stored up a big lot of corn and a dry year came. One day, ten wagons drove up, drawn by two yoke of oxen. Each had come about 75 mile after corn. That was quite a distance over the rough roads of Tennessee. Grandfather told them they couldn't buy any of his corn. They insisted that they had come a long way and cared nothing for the price and had the money to pay him. He said, "I know you have the money, and that is just why you can't have my corn. My price for corn is 50 cents per bushel, no more no less, but I have neighbors here that haven't any money and they can't buy corn just anywhere like you men that have money, and I am going to save the corn for them, so he sold all his corn to the poor neighbors on the credit, and that trait has cropped up occasionally all along the line in the Manes Family.

Upon entering the service he described it in these words:

"We met at Bar Creek, a tributary stream of Deep River, I was drafted in the service. We march for the purpose of intercepting small parties of Tories and British which were going through the county and doing mischief. We went on through Chatham County and some other counties which I do not recollect. We crossed Cape Fear River twice in our route, we went on towards Willington. We marched a Southwest course marched and were outling Tories near Peedee River when we met with one Fannin, at a place called Baties Bridge. We, in the actin, had to retreat. We collected together after the Battle and marched towards Moore County where we arrived about the first of January, 1781. I served in the capacity of Private. I was gone four months.

I volunteered myself again first of Feb. 1781 under Capt. Williams and Col. Butler to go after Fannin and his men. The report was he was going to attack Hillsborough. We attacked Fannin at Lindsay Mill where we had a sharp action with him. He retreated and we did not take any of his men. We recruited our forces and still cautiously pursued him and his men on down towards Willington until our Col. thought it dangerous to follow him any further. We returned to Hillsborough, lay there for sometime, scouted about through the county after Tories and guarding the Town and neighborhood. We the marched for Moore County. We arrived home the first of May 1781.. I received no discharge, was dismissed and had been gone four months.

I served in the capacity of private sometime in the month of September 1781, I think about the middle as well as I now recollect. I volunteered myself again under Captain Williams and Col. Butler to march to Yorktown against the British. We marched to Hillsborough where we were stationed in waiting for Levies to come and join us but, while we lay there, we received news that Cornwallis had surrendered and we did not have to go. We then marched back and I was discharged, being gone one month and was never out anymore.

Seth moved from North Carolina to Hawkins Co., Tennessee before 1795 where he died in 1852. He lived seven miles north of Rogersville, Tennessee on the North side of Clinch Mountain. In 1831, records indicate that three of his sons, William, John and Jesse all acquired land on the North side of the mountain also. He and Patsy are buried at the old home place in Hawkins Co.

DAR application in August 1996. The DAR chapter is in Russellville, Arkansas and membership was approved for the applicant in June 1986.

Brief Biography

Seth Manes (Manis) was born on Feb 6, 1762 in Bedford County, Virginia. Some researchers state his father was William Manes, b. abt 1735. The surname, Manes has been spelled several different ways: Manis, Manus, Malnus, etc. Seth's father came from Wales, England at the age of 11 and settled in Virginia. On Sep 1, 1780, Seth, at the age of 18, while living in Moore County, North Carolina, joined the army during the Revolutionary War. Sometime prior to 1795 he moved to Hawkins County, Tennessee, and died there in 1852. Seth lived seven miles north of Rogersville, Tennessee, on the north side of Clinch Mountain. In 1831, records indicate that three of Seth's sons, William, John, and Jesse all acquired land on the north side of Clinch Mtn.

On Nov 24, 1835, at the age of 73, Seth Manes submitted an application affidavit to secure a pension for his service in the Revolutionary War. A brief abstract of this affidavit is: Seth entered the service on Sep 1, 1780 under the command of Capt. Williams in the Reg't. of Col. Caswell in Moore Co., N.C.; he was a private, and gone four months; he volunteered again in February of 1781 and returned home in May 1781; volunteered again in September of 1781, was ordered to march to Yorktown when his unit learned Gen. Cornwallis had surrendered, he was in the service about one month this time and was discharged.

Children of Seth and Patsy Field Manes were: Jesse, Elizabeth, John, James, Tempa, Jacob Wilson, William, and George R. Manes who is listed above. Seth and Patsy are buried at the old home place in Hawkins County, Tennessee.

Almost all the information and research contained on these charts was performed by others and given to me. I organized these charts to give me a better overview of the Manes family. Errol Lewis.

State of Tennessee Hawkins County: On this 21st day of April 1836 personally appeared Seth Manis resident of the County of Hawkins and State of Tennessee before John Mitchell one of the Justices of the peace for said County and after being duly sworn according to law on his oath make the following additional declaration. This declarant says he entered the service of the United States in the year 1780 under the command of Capt. Williams and Col. Caswell in Moore County State of North Carolina as a private. This deponent states he was principally engaged in marching through the Country intercepting bodies of Tories in their march to rob the settlers we engaged with Col. Fanning a Tory Col. and his men at Bettes bridge we had to retreat Small detachments of the Enemy were marching through the Country continually and it was necessary that they should be kept in awe we marched from place as necessity would require and where we were most needed. We were out 4 months. We could not quit our pursuit until men were brought into the field to take [our] place and they could not be brought out to a single day -- or week -- we therefore continued in service until men were supplied -- Men who served in small detachments as we did scouting about after foraging parties of the enemy and Tories could not act as a large Army we had to evade them if too strong and seek safety and we could not be disbanded when far from home for fear of being killed. In returning home by the Tories therefore we were not discharged until we returned home and kept embodied until we did return home. This declarant states he knows of no one who he can prove his service by -- and further states it is Impossible for him to recount every circumstance of small note that occurred during his service owing to the great length of time since it took place and old age and the consequent loss of memory his service was not noted by strong circumstances such as large and general Engagements that is left on record but such as he can recollect he states He states he had an engagement in his 2nd tour in 1781 with Col. Fanning at Lindley's Mill. He further states on his 3rd engagement he was at Hillsboro when he received news of Cornwallis' surrender. This declarant says he was actively engaged the time he states to the best of his memory this declarant says he will would have applied sooner for his right but he did not know that some would tell him one thing about it and some another and he did not going about any, and living in the mountainous part of the County remote from information of that kind, he did not know for some years there was an act for his benefit.

Am looking for info on Susan Patsy Fields born circa 1763 and her husband Seth Maness (Manis, Manes) All info before these two deadends. Lots of couldbes and she said but no facts. In the following censuses I found three people who may be related. Would like info on them if anyone has it. 1800 Dublin & Air Twsp David Fields (possible her father or brother) would like any info anyone has on him or his family 1800 Bethel & Belfast Twsp Edward Wilson 1800 Bedford & St. Clair Twsp Caleb Wilson (Seth named his oldest son Jacob Wilson Maness so there may be a connection possible through his mother) Seths fathers name has been listed as William SR William JR & Jacob. William SR. was supposed to have been an indentured servant from Scotland. Have some documentation on SR & JR but nothing to conclusively tie to Seth. Seth and Susan Patsy lived in Moore Co NC after marriage (app. 1782) and died in Hawkins county TN.

The Pedigree Resource File is a new lineage linked database of records available on compact disc containing family history records submitted by individuals through FamilySearch Internet Genealogy Service. Family information is organized in family groups and pedigrees and includes submitted notes and sources. Many charts and reports can be printed from this data. Each disc contains about 1.1 million names. With the publication of every five discs, a master index for those discs will be published and packaged with that set of discs. With the publication of every 25 discs, a master index for those discs will also be published and packaged with that volume of discs. Discs may be purchased as sets or volumes.

 Comment: Almost all the information and research contained on these charts was performed by others and given to me. I researched these charts to give a better overview of the Manes family. Errol Lewis Seth Manes (Manis) was born on Feb. 6, 1762 in Bedford County, Virginia. Some researchers state his father was William Manes, b. abt. 1735. I turnstone, Manes has been spelled several different ways: Manis, Manus, Matius, etc. Seth's father came from Wales, England at the age of 11 and settled in Virginia. On Sep. 1, 1780, Seth, at the age of 17, while living in Moore County, North Carolina, joined the army during the Revolutionary War. Sometime prior to 1795 he moved to Hawkins County, Tennessee, and died there in 1852. Seth lived seven miles north of Roanokeville, Tennessee, on the north side of Clinch Mountain. In 1831, records indicate that three of Seth's sons, William, John, and Jesse all acquired land on the north side of Clinch Mt.

On Nov. 24, 1835, at the age of 73, Seth Manes submitted an application affidavit to secure a pension for his service in the Revolutionary War. A brief abstract of this affidavit is: Seth entered the Service on Sep. 1, 1780 under the command of Capt. Williams in the Reg't of Col. Casswell in Moore Co., H.C.; he was a private, and gone four months; he volunteered again in February of 1781 and returned home in May 1781; volunteered again in September of 1781, was ordered to march to Yorktown when his unit learned Gen. Cornwallis had surrendered; he was in the service about one month this time and was discharged.

Children of Seth and Patsy Field Manes were: Jesse, Elizabeth, John, James, Tenna, Jacob Wythe, William, and George B. Manes who is listed above. Seth and Patsy are buried at the old home place in Hawkins County, Tennessee. Other children: Sharon S. Fulton list the following persons as possible additional children of George and Malinda Lawson Manes: James Reno Russell Manes, b. abt 1818; Jesse Manes, b. abt 1820; Mary Manes, b. between 1822-1849; Elender Manes, b. 1826-1847; George S. Manes, b. 1831; David H. Manes, b. unk.; Noonia Manes, b. unk.; and Wesley Jackson Manes, b. unk. Pleasant Manes was an interpreter on the Trails of Tears, and later moved his family west. He was a Methodist Circuit Rider and died while away on a preaching trip. Mary Lena was a Cherokee

Anna, she was b. Oct 28, 1826, d. Aug 26, 1904. She was buried at Cedar Grove Cemetery just north of Deer, Arkansas with three of her children: Evaline, Margaret, and Erasmus Clabourn L. Mares - He was born in Hamilton Co., TN. He had black hair, blue eyes, fair complexion, and was five feet eight inches in height according to his pension file. He and his brother, Pleasant, served with Capt. Sillett's Cav. during the Indian Wars. Enlisted Nov. 1, 1872 and was discharged Mar 9, 1878. His widow, Sarah, applied for a Widow's Pension (WC #12929 on Aug 24, 1892 based upon his military service. At that time she was a resident of St. Joe, Sevier Co., Ar. Their date of marriage and his date of death are listed in these pension papers. She states they were married in Hamilton Co., TN, and her maiden name was Certificate # 376177 was issued.

John obtained 400 acres of land under the Homestead Act of 1862 in Taney Co., Missouri. Certificate #5946, application #15575, dated Feb 21, 1893.

As the years progressed, John's health declined, and in later years he lived with his son, William who was appointed his guardian. At the last, he was placed in a hospital for the insane, and he died on November 26, 1913. He was buried in the McCarty Cemetery, Cedar Creek, Taney Co., MO. At the time of his death, the weather was too inclement to take the body across the river to be buried beside his wife, Harriet A. Fulkner, who was originally interred in the old Lead Hill Cemetery, Boone Co., AR, but whose grave was relocated to the new Hillman Cemetery with the creation of Bull Shoals dam and lake, the Sheros S. Fulkner, William M. Thomas and his wife, Lela Sheros are buried at the Sheroa Cemetery in Taney Co., MO. Lela Thomas was killed and never married. By the family she was called "Betty". Laura T. Manes: I searched for some years for the ancestors of my great grandfather, Laura Manes. During this research I explored many leads and they all proved negative. In 1999, I contacted Ernie Lee Masters and John Land (others) provided a wealth of information on the Manes family. The great grandfather was Lewis C. Thornton, born on October 10, 1842 in Sevier County, Arkansas. He was the son of Thomas Calvin Thornton and Mary Ann Cornett. On Jun 14, 1863, Lewis C. Thornton married Rebecca Ann Denton in Sevier County. To this union seven children were born. After the birth of their last child, Rebecca was in poor health. Lewis C. Thornton hired a young woman by the name of Laura Manes to help with the children and household chores. Rebecca died on May 2, 1867. Seven weeks later, on June 11, 1867, Lewis C. Thornton married Laura T. Manes. However, on their marriage license and application her name is spelled three different ways: Manes, Maness, and Manier. I began my genealogy research in 1977. I interviewed many family members and none had any knowledge of Laura's life before she was hired by Lewis C. Thornton in the early 1860's. There were many theories and old stories but none provided the link to Laura's ancestors. Thus, almost by a matter of obligation, I believe the Laura Manes who married Lewis C. Thornton was the daughter of John W. Manes and Harriet McNeal. I suspect that after Harriet McNeal Manes died in 1880, Boone County, Arkansas, that John sent Laura to live with relatives in St. Joe, Sevier County. Lewis C. Thornton had a brother John in St. Joe at that time, and this was the Laura Manes that Lewis hired to help with Rebecca and their children.

Laura and Lewis C. Thornton had three children: Thomas, Andrew Thornton, the grandfather, George Washington Thornton, and John Jennette Thornton, all born in Carroll, Sevier Co., Arkansas. Laura Manes Thornton died on February 15, 1903 in Campbell, Sevier County, Arkansas, and she is buried at the Campbell Cemetery.

Three months after Laura's death, on March 9, 1893, Lewis C. Thornton married Mrs. Francis Anne Sutherland Martin, a young widow woman with no children. Some have said "Laura's footprints were still in the gutter when Lewis married Francis Sutherland Martin". Lewis and Francis had five children. Lewis C. Thornton died on April 25, 1922 in Sevier County, and he too is buried at the Campbell Cemetery. Lewis' youngest daughter, Lela Mae Thornton Smith, told me in 1993 that Lewis C. Thornton had 20 children with three wives, but several died during infancy. See 21, 2001 - Sheros Fulkner sent me many pages from a Bible. Apparently, these pages were taken from the Bible of John W. Manes. On one of these pages it indicates that Laura Manes was married Dec 24, 1865. This information was given to me about four years ago but the person didn't recall where she had obtained the information. I contacted Taney County, Missouri and requested a copy of the marriage record. However, records from this time period were lost due to fire. Therefore, I conclude that Laura Manes, daughter of John and Harriet Manes, was NOT the person who married my great grandfather, Lewis Calvin Thornton. Why? Lewis C. Thornton and Laura were married Jun 11, 1867 in Sevier County, Mo., and she died Feb 15, 1893. Therefore, these are two different persons. Jan 11, 2002 - Sharon has located records indicating Laura, daughter of John W. Manes, married a Mr. Rice, and from this union they had a son, Isaac M. Rice. On Nov 27, 1913, Isaac was buried in Newton County, Arkansas. In John W. Manes estate papers Isaac M. Rice is listed as a grandson and only heir of Laura Rice, deceased. Sharon suspect that Laura died in 1886, shortly after giving birth to her son, Isaac M. Rice. Note: This information helps confirm that this Laura Manes was not the second wife of Lewis C. Thornton.

Alice Brown, wife of Harry B. Manes, was the daughter of James Austin Brown and Mandy Jane Thurman.

John Wesley Manes Jr. - The following is a story that was published in the book Knobbers, Vigilantes on the Ozark Frontier by Mary Hartman and Elmo Iverson from pages 196 and 198. "and outlaw Mulford fled Missouri to stay ahead of Arkansas law officers. Information provided by Sheros Fulkner - Jan 2003 James Brown, who lived near Forsyth, was sought for robbery and burglary at about a Lead Hill, Arkansas. He crossed the state line near Potosi, where he broke into several houses and stole food and valuables. Sheriff McFistie led a small search party to hunt for Brown at his grandfather's house near Taney City. On the morning of the August 20, 1886, Brown heard them rattle up and hide in a hollow a quarter mile north. The posse spread out to search the property. When 20 year James Manes started down into the hollow, Brown shot him in the stomach. Manes fell to the ground, and Brown climbed the hill toward him.

Reaching the wounded Manes, Brown said, "Well, I've got you, and I'll get the rest of them with your rifle." He grabbed the rifle from the deputy's Winchester. Although badly wounded, Manes held onto his gun and fired five shots. One bullet struck Brown in the left arm, and two more grazed his side. But the outlaw, his arm almost blown off, ran away!

Sheriff McFistie summoned Dr. V. V. Babin to treat his downed officer. The angry sheriff beefed up his posse. All that day and through the night, 50 to 100 armed men stalked the criminal. At around eight the next morning, the hunters discovered that Brown had raided a farmer's farmhouse for butter and other food. About a mile away, James Dunch and another searcher tracked Brown's bloody trail to a pile of brush at a fence corner.

Ahead of Brown's gun, the pursuers yelled his name and ordered him to surrender. He rose and staggered away, clutching his back, and the outlaw died in a patch of dispersed pines.

An hour later, James Manes also died of his wounds. The sheriff discarded his posse and rode off toward Brown Creek."

Sharon continues: "Jackie Souder Loomer told me that John had been misidentified as JAMES. From another cousin I was told John Manes was taken to Chub Bennett's two-story house, which was nearby and that he died there. Is that place still standing? He also told me that Brown died off the back of John's horse's head and that it what killed him a day or two later. Another interesting story is they carried John up the stairs of Chub Bennett's house, he was bleeding a lot, and the blood never did wash out and the stains were still there years later. It is my understanding the house is no longer owned by Bennett but it's still standing.

Betty,
John Wesley Manis parents were George W. Manis and Sarah Lawson. George W. was the son of John Manis and Celia Nelson. John was the son of Seth Manis of Hawkins County, Tennessee. I show John Wesley as being born in Hawkins County, Tennessee. I started researching the Manis/Maness family many years ago and took down as much information as I could about all spellings. Hope this helps you some.

Allan, I am seeking info on John Wesley Manis, born in Tenn about 1852, married in Mo to Emma Henderson on 25 Mar 1877. He lived in Warrensburg in Johnson Co for some time. Haven't been able to determine his parents or the date and place of burial, prob in the 1930's per my uncles who knew him. Any help would be appreciated.

Hi Betty, theres a John W. Maness, 18 years old, living with family #334 in Big River Twsp., Jefferson Co., Mo. census 1870. This would fit your John Wesley, b. 1852. But the family is, J.T. Maness, 26, Mo., Louisa, 21, Mo. and Emma, 2, Mo.. Too young to be parents. A brother ? Then, in same area, same year, theres family #55, John, 18, Mo., looks to be the son of Elijah Maness, 58, Tn. and Nancy, 54, N.C.. Others are Wm. Riley, 20, M., Carloine, 14, Mo., Jackson, 10, Mo., Martha, 15, Ill., and Mary, 11, Mo.. In 1860 census, same area, a James Maines, 18, Mo., is listed with Ephriam Maines, 38, Tn., Nancy, 39, Tn.. Could this be the J.T. Maness that John W. is with in 1870 ? But there is no John or Wesley with Ephriam in 1860 ? Do you have any more details ? Al

I recently found a very old American Beech tree with initials and names carved on it, including Susie Manis, in Carroll County, Virginia, a few miles north of Galax. The tree stands near what appears to be the site of an old home place. I wonder if anyone might have information about who this Susie Manis might have been and about the home place nearby.

I am looking for information on a Susan Fields b 1767 that might possibly been the spouse of Seth Maness(Manis) b 1762. I believe that this Susan Fields b 1767 was listed in a book called "Starr's Book of Cherokee Families North Carolina". If you have the book or the availability of reading the book, I would appreciate any information that might be found in it regarding this specific Susan Fields. Any information that you might have on this Susan Fields b 1767 will be greatly appreciated. Thank you. My Email address is "belva@mon-cre.net".

My gg-gfather was Pleasant MANIS, son of John MANIS Sr. & g-son of Seth MANIS of Hawkins Co., Tn. Pleasant had a son named Andrew J. whose daughter, Hassie Bell MANIS Lane gave birth, out of wed lock, to a son whom she named Bruce McClure LANE. He was born in 1933 in Eidson(Hawkins Co.)Tn. & died in 1995. His birth father is believed to have been named Nathaniel LAWSON. It is believed that, at the time Bruce was born, Hassie Bell's husband had left her, but she still went by the LANE surname & raised her children by that name.

Bruce's LANE siblings were.....

Carrie Ethel
John or James Carson
Lee Oma
Casey
Betha Mae

It is my understanding that Nathaniel LAWSON had 13 other children. Their names were as follows.....

Rhea
Creed
Elmer
Kate
Garney
Benny
Chester
Nergie
Haskell
Fred
Kermit
Nellie
Pauline

All of these people were from Hawkins Co., Tn., & there are a lot of LAWSONS in our MANIS line, so where does Nathaniel fit in?

If anyone can help, please e-mail me at the following.....

enfc@juno.com

Thanks,
Edith Ferrell Corley

My wife is from Seth Maness/Manes/Manis/Manus.

These are the names most often used. I have better results using Maness on search. The family is scattered over a wide area From Tenn. to Ark. Her line came through Ark.and innto Okla. Some of the family live in the Pine Bluff Dumas Ark. area. I would like to share information if you can give me more information. The list that I have is quite long but I may be able to attach it to e-mail for you.

Jacob Wilson Manes

Jacob was married in 1800 to Mary Lawson and for the next 20 years this couple made their home in Tn., with Jacob making his living by trading with the Indians and by hunting. He was away from home much of the time. As time went on Jacob became increasingly restless, complaining that game was getting scarce because of too many settlers and that there were fewer Indians to trade with, etc.

In 1821 Jacob, his wife and their 6 sons, Calloway, Wade, Seth, William Bryson, James and Nicholas, headed north in a covered wagon, crossing the states of Tn., and Ky. When they came to the Ohio River, camp was struck for several days while a raft was built. This raft carried the family across to the Indiana side. The march northward was continued until a place was found to suit Jacob's fancy. The site was near what is now Terre Haute, Indiana. Here a log cabin was erected.

Two years later, in 1823, the family was on the move again. This journey, however, was of short duration, lasting only three days or so. They stopped at a space 35 miles east of Terre Haute, in Clay Twp., Owen County, Indiana. Here, according to Jacob Wilson Manes, was an ideal spot. The land was high and dry. There were almost no settlers and plenty of game. An abundance of water was supplied by Raccon Creek and White River, which ran close by and were filled with good edible fish; plenty of timber was available for building. The location offered everything that tended to make a pioneer's life easier one. A cabin was built a little more than a quarter of a mile west of the present site of the Braysville school house on the south side of the Braysville-Freedom pile road.

Four more children were born to this couple after coming to Indiana. Lottie, Jane, Jacob, and Mahala.

According to the older children, Jacob spent less and less time at home after settling in Indiana. Sometimes not showing up for a year or two at a time. Then in about 1835, Jacob went away and never returned.

March 11, 1835- Jacob W. Manes and J.A. Manis are among those petitioning the court for an election on the East side of the Osage River for Justices of the Peace.

Nov. 5, 1838- Jacob Manis petitions the court for a township and election South of the Osage River. The new town of Jim Henry was formed from this.

Feb. 8, 1840- Jacob Manes petitions for a road leading from Iberia Post Office to Davis' ferry on the Osage River, "On the direction to Jefferson City".

Jacob Wilson Manes (name and birth)

1782

Jacob Wilson Manes, son of Seth and Patsy Manis, was born 1782 in Moore County, North Carolina. Among records that have been found his name spelled different ways. The same thing occurs with his birth date.

In the 1830 census, Hawkins County, Tn., Jacob Manas, born 1790-1800.

In the 1840 census, Miller County, Mo., Osage Twp., Jacob Manas, born 1781-1790.

In the 1840 census, Owen County, In., Clay Twp., his wife Mary Manas, born 1781-1790.

In the 1850 census, Hot Springs County, Ar., Prairie Twp., Jacob W. Manus, age 58 (born 1791-1792 in North Carolina)

In a marriage record found in Rhea County, Tn., Jacob Manice to Polly Lawson.

Son, Samuel Jasper spelled his father's name Manes. There are 5 different spellings here. There is no way to tell which is right. To set the exact date of birth is also difficult. The 1850 census shows that he was 58 years being born in the later part of 1791 or early in 1792. In a book named Arkansas Traveler (a list of people who were 60 years of age or older in 1850) Jacob W. Manus, age 68, born in North Carolina, was living with Emeline (Jacob's 3rd wife) in Hot Springs, Arkansas. This would put his birth at 1782. Samuel Jasper also states that his father was the eldest of Rev. Seth Maness' children.

43rd Infantry Regiment [also called 5th East Tennessee Volunteer Regiment] was organized at Knoxville, Tennessee, during December, 1861. Its members were recruited in the counties of Polk, Rhea, Meigs, Bledsoe, Hawkins, Roane, Jefferson, McMinn, Bradley, and Hamilton. It moved to Virginia, Kentucky, then Mississippi where it was assigned to A.W. REYNOLD'S Brigade in the Department of Mississippi and East Louisiana. The unit fought at Champion's Hill and Big Black River Bridge, then was captured in the fight for Vicksburg. After being exchanged and reorganized as mounted infantry, it was attached to General VAUGHN'S Brigade and during April, 1864, contained 215 effectives. It joined General EARLY in the Valley of Virginia and was active in the battles and skirmishes of his campaign. Later the regiment fought at Russellville in Tennessee, returned to Virginia, moved to North Carolina where it joined President DAVIS' escort, and ended the war at Washington, Georgia, in May, 1865, with a force of 123 men. The field officers were Colonel James W. GILLESPIE, Lieutenant Colonel David M. KEY, and Majors Lawson GUTHRIE and William H. McKAMY.

WILL OF JOHN MANIS

Proven: June Term, 1856

I John Manis of the County of Hawkins and State of Tennessee, being somewhat advanced in life and rather of feeble health, but of sound and disposing mind and memory, considering the uncertainty of life and the certainty of death, do make, publish and declare the following to be my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking and making void all the other wills made by me heretofore at any time whatsoever.

First. It is my will and desire that of the money that may be on hand at my death, or which may first come into the hands of my Executors hereafter named, all my just debts should be paid and all the expenses attending my funeral.

Second. It is my will and desire that my two sons, Nelson and George Manis shall have all my lands which lie in the valley where they now live, except that portion of said lands which lie northwest of a line to be run hereafter from a bunch of gums corner of a 50 acre grant to run with a line down to _____ Dubard's line and to cross the valley so as to strike Andrew Frost's line at Dubard's corner. It being my intention to give to my said two sons or their heirs all the lands which lies east and north of said line and to contain 125 acres to be equally divided between them, share and share alike.

Third. It is my will and desire that my four grandchildren, to wit: Sarah Manis, Rhoda Manis, Amanda Manis and Gathan Manis shall have my 50 acre tract of land as is contained in Grant No. 19338 and issued on the 20th day of October, 1835, to be equally divided between them, share and share alike. But if it should be thought advisable and for the interest of said grandchildren, by my Executors to sell said 50 acre tract, they may sell the same and if sale should be made whilst said grand children are minors, the money arising from said sale shall be put at interest until the oldest may become of age or shall marry, and this his or her portion of said proceeds shall be paid over to him or her, and so on with the others.

Fourth. It is my will and desire that my son, Pleasant Manis shall have the tract of land whereon he now lives which lies west of the main road which passes my house from Sneedville to Rogersville. The east line to run with the road from the SE corner thereof to the lower corner of the tract whereon I now live, to wit: To the lower corner of my meadow. Thence leaving the road to the left and running a straight line to a stake, a corner of my 50 acre tract. Thence along the line of said 50 acre tract to a black oak and maple corner of said 50 acre tract. Thence around various courses to include all my land west of the last mentioned line.

Fifth. It is my will and desire that my wife Celia Manis shall have the entire use and control of my home plantation and the two places on which Washington Smith and John Robison now live for and during her natural life or widowhood, and after her death or marriage that said plantations shall belong entirely in fee simple to my two sons John and Gilbert Manis who are now minors, or their heirs, to be equally divided between them share and share alike. And it is my will and desire that my wife Celia shall also have my negro boy Rowe and my mare mule for and during her natural life or widowhood, and after her death, or should she marry, then and in that case, it is my will and desire that my Executors shall sell the said negro boy and mule and divide the proceeds equally between Nancy Manis, Betsy Fields, Polly Robertson, Celia Manis and Lucinda Manis, my daughters, share and share alike. It is also my will and desire that my wife Celia shall have all my household and kitchen furniture, and one third of the stock (of) hogs that may be on hand at the time of my death, one third of the sheep, one third of the cattle and all the farming utensils.

Sixth. It is my will and desire that my son John Manis shall have a bay mare colt now one year old past and a saddle and bridle. And my son Gilbert to have a bay mare colt, saddle and bridle likewise. And that my daughter Celia shall have one cow and calf, one side saddle, and my daughter Lucinda shall have a cow and calf and side saddle.

Seventh. It is my will and desire that all the balance of my personal estate shall be sold by my Executors on 12 month's credit and the money when collected shall be equally divided between my daughters Nancy Manis, Polly Robertson, Celia Manis and Lucinda Manis, and if any money should be on hand at the time of my death more than sufficient to pay my debts and funeral expenses, it is my will and desire that said monies shall likewise be divided equally between my said four daughters last above named.

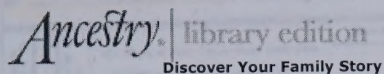

Lastly. I do hereby nominate and appoint my son Pleasant Manis and my son-in-law Carter Manis Executors to this my last Will and Testament. This 15 September, 1855.

WANT BETTER WEATHER.

2-18-98

The Funeral of Dallas Manis Is Postponed.

The funeral of Dallas Manis, the eccentric farmer who died in Pipecreek township was to have taken place Wednesday. The friends and neighbors assembled at the appointed hour, but the family decided the weather was too bad and concluded to postpone the funeral until a more favorable day.

There are many relatives on hand from this and adjoining States, some having come from as far as Kansas.

Dalzel Manis Dead.

Dalzel Manis one of the old residents of this township, died yesterday morning at his country home just north of Frankton, after an illness of six months.

His mind became unbalanced and his condition grew pitiful before death came. The funeral occurred today, interment in the cemetery near his home.

Pipe Creek Township

Location: north side of CR 900N, between CRs 500W and 575W

Picturesque in its setting, the Howard Cemetery is visible from CR 900N. It is situated on a beautiful hill overlooking Pipe Creek. This pioneers' burial ground was started in the 1840s and continued to be used into the 20th century. Family genealogists still place flowers on the graves of their ancestors here.

The Howard Cemetery is the resting place for many of Pipe Creek Township's first settlers. In 1834, Joseph Miller and family from Wayne County, Indiana, were close behind the Shells and Siglers in pioneering the farmland along Pipe Creek. Actually arriving before any improved roads, Joseph, in fact, was the area's first blacksmith, an indispensable position among pioneers.

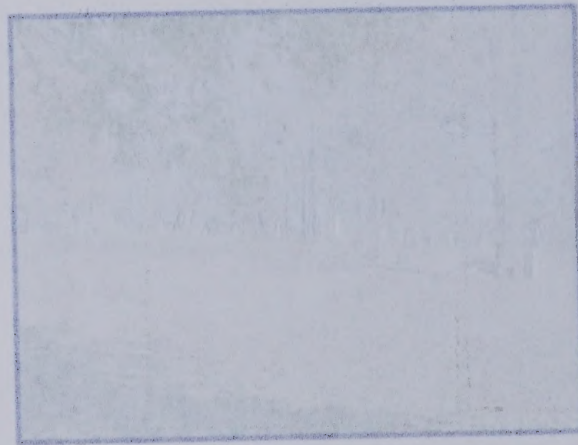

Before medical knowledge and improvements, women giving birth were among the most frequent casualties in the 19th century. It was not uncommon for stalwart husbands to have in succession two or three wives. "Isabella, Wife of Joseph Miller Died June 27, 1854 Aged 30 yrs. and his Infant's With her," explains that Joseph's wife and baby both died during childbirth.

Pioneer Cemeteries and Their Stories

Beautiful in any season, the well-kept Howard takes its name from Samuel Howard who purchased this land in section 30 after arriving in 1835. D. Manis owned the land in 1876, and so the cemetery was later referred to by that name. The line of trees in the background borders the steep bank of Pipe Creek.

graduated with honors and the degree of M. D. He then entered into partnership with his father, with whom he remained until the latter's death. Then he formed a partnership with the veteran practitioner, Dr. G. F. Chittenden, and they remained associated for twenty years. Prosperity crowned Dr. Jones' efforts, and he is an investor in the Anderson Fuel Supply Company. In connection with John W. Lovett, he built the Hotel Anderson, a commodious structure, and was interested in the South Park Addition to Anderson. They also built a three-story block in Gas City.

At Cambridge City, in the fall of 1873, Dr. Jones married Miss Mary C., daughter of Capt. Monroe Cokefair, of the Third Indiana Battery during the war. They have been blessed with two children: Thomas N. and Nellie D. Dr. Jones is a member of the Odd Fellows' Encampment, the Elks, Grand Army of the Republic, Knights of Honor, and the County and State Medical Societies. Politically, he is a Democrat, but does not take an active interest in politics. He is thoroughly wedded to his profession.

SAMUEL P. MOORE. Of those who are assuming enviable positions as attorneys-at-law, is Samuel P. Moore, of the law firm of Chipman & Moore. He is a native of Ohio, having been born in Licking County, that state, on the 5th of June, 1859. His father was Jacob H. Moore, a native of Virginia, who was during his life a merchant, farmer, civil engineer and school teacher. He died in 1864. The mother, Susanna Harris, was born in Ohio, and was the daughter of William Harris, a native of Pennsylvania, who settled in Ohio when that state was in comparative infancy. He was in the War of 1812, and fought under Gen. William Henry Harrison. The mother resides in the old home in Licking County, Ohio. The grandfather was David Moore, who was a farmer in Virginia and removed to Ohio at an early day and engaged in raising fine horses.

Samuel P. Moore is the youngest of six living children. He was reared on a farm in Licking County, Ohio, and attended the common schools. After passing through Hanover Academy, he engaged in teaching until he began the study of law. In 1877 he was admitted to practice in the courts, and in 1888 he located in Anderson and began the practice of law. In 1890 he formed a partnership with his father-in-law, Hon. D. C. Chipman, and they have worked together since. Mr. Moore is a member in good standing of the Madison County Bar Association. His political tenets are those of the Democratic party.

In October 1890, Mr. Moore was united in marriage with Miss Julia A. Chipman, daughter of Hon. D. C. Chipman. She was born at Noblesville, Hamilton County, Ind. The name of their only child is Belle Chipman Moore.

DALZEL MANIS, an old and prominent citizen of Madison County, Ind., came originally from Tennessee where his birth occurred in 1813. He needs no introduction to the people of this county, for a long residence here, and above all, a career of usefulness and prominence has given him a very extensive acquaintance. As a farmer he has attained an enviable reputation, for in conducting his operations he has brought his good sense and practical views to bear, and as a result has accumulated a fair share of this world's goods. His parents, William and Lydia (Lauson) Manis, were natives of the Old North State, but after their marriage moved to Tennessee, where the father died in 1842, when sixty years of age. Later the mother moved to Indiana and was a resident of that state until her death in 1862, when eighty years of age. The grandfather, Seth Manis, was ninety years of age at the time of his death, and his wife died at the age of ninety. Very little is known of the grandparents on either side; but the Manis family was of English and the Lauson family of German ancestry, and both come of long-lived races.

Dalzel Manis was fifth in order of birth of eleven children, and remained under the parental roof until eighteen years of age. He had very limited educational advantages but possessed much natural ability and an unlimited amount of good, practical common sense. When eighteen years of age he married Miss Marena Lauson, daughter of Clem and Mecca Lauson, natives of North Carolina. Mr. and Mrs. Lauson came to Indiana in 1833 and settled near Knightstown, Henry County, where the remainder of their days was passed. Immediately after his marriage our subject came with his bride to Henry County, Ind., and engaged in farming, following that occupation in that county for twelve years. From there he moved to Rush County, where another twelve years were spent, and then located in Douglas County, Ill. There he invested largely in farm property and became the owner of several different farms in that and adjoining counties.

In 1865 Mr. Manis sold a portion of his property in Illinois and returned to Indiana, locating in Madison County. He has one hundred and fifty-eight acres in the home place, adjoining the towns of Quick City and Frankton, and the corporation lines will no doubt soon inclose a portion of his property. Mr. Manis owns two good farms in Greenwood County, Kan., both including two hundred and sixty acres, and he has invested over $8,000 in Kansas for the benefit of his children. Of the eleven children born to his union, six are now living. Elizabeth, now Mrs. James Reason, resides near Pendleton, Jackson Township, Madison County; George resides in Orange County, Ind.; Lydia Ann is deceased; Maria, wife of Jacob Hyner, resides on a farm in Stony Creek Township, this county; William is deceased; Patsey, now Mrs. Lucian Pugh, resides in Greenwood County, Kan.; Amanda is deceased; Curtis resides in Greenwood County, Kan.; Andrew is deceased; Mahala, resides at home and James is deceased.

Although Mr. Manis is now eighty years of age, time has dealt leniently with him and he has the appearance of a man about sixty-five years of age. He is hale and hearty and his genial, pleasant face impresses one most favorably and inspires confidence and respect. A man of the strictest integrity and uprightness, Mr. Manis' word is as good as his bond. Broad-minded, liberal hearted and trustworthy, no one has other than a kind word for Uncle Dan Manis. In politics he votes the Republican ticket.

GEORGE W. DAVIS. One of the eminently successful men of Anderson is George W. Davis, of the firm of Kaufman & Davis, owners of the Lion Store, an establishment whose growth has been gradual, yet phenomenal, until it is now the largest general dry-goods store in Central Indiana. Mr. Davis was born at Kokomo, Howard County, Ind., September 16, 1863, being the seventh of ten children comprising the family of Nathan J. and Anne E. (Carlisle) Davis, of Kokomo. The father was a native of Maryland, who in early life moved to Ohio and there followed the occupation of a contractor and builder, in which business he displayed great energy and enterprise. He died at the age of forty years. The mother was a native of Ohio, her father, John Carlisle, being of Scotch-Irish descent. She is still living at Kokomo, Ind. Grandfather Davis was a Maryland man, whose ancestors came from Wales.

George W. Davis was reared at Kokomo, where he attended the common schools. When a mere boy he began clerking in a dry-goods store, and the commercial knowledge he gained then and there has been of inestimable value to him since engaging in business for himself. In 1887 he came to Anderson, and in connection with Daniel T. Kaufman engaged in the general dry-goods and department store business under the firm name of Kaufman & Davis, conferring upon their place of business the distinctive title of The Lion Store. In 1888 in order to accommodate their large and increasing business, they built an addition to their store. In 1893 they also entered into occupation of the second and third stories of the large Harter block which fronts on Meridian Street, bridging the alley from the rear of the store to the rear of the Harter building so as to have perfect connection. There are seventeen departments

Hi, I am doing some reseach for a woman that is like my second mom and hope someone can help me. Her father was Harry Earl Winton born in 1913. I have found cemetery records for the following people in the area he grew up and was wondering if anyone could tell me how they are connected and if you knew anything else about the family. I would love to put it together for her.
Thank You in advance.

human West Nile virus were reported to the CDC from 25 states as of Aug. 22. Officials consider that an undercount because there is often a delay in diagnosing cases and transferring reports from states to the CDC.

At the same time last year the CDC received 501 reports from 25 states. That means cases are up 16 percent from last year.

West Nile season usually peaks in late August and doesn't end until November, so it's hard to say exactly how bad the season will be, said Petersen, the Colorado-based director of the CDC's Division of Vector-borne Infectious Diseases.

But it probably will be worse than 2005 and 2004 when the summers were relatively cool, Petersen said.

This year should not be as bad as 2003, when nearly 10,000 cases of human illness were reported nationwide, including about 2,000 in Nebraska and 3,000 in Colorado.

West Nile virus was first reported in the United States in 1999 in New York, then spread across the country.

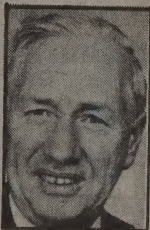

Mosquitoes transmit the virus, often picking it up from birds they bite and then spreading it to people.

Only about one in five infected people get sick. One in 150 infected people

Sketch - John Haines (1664 - 1728)

1600s, New Jersey

John Haines, son of Richard Haines and Margaret Leeds, farmer, of Evesham Twp., Burlington Co., N. J. b. England, about 1664; d. November 1728; m. 1st, at Thomas Gardiner's house, Burlington, under the care of Burlington MM, N.J., 10 mo. (Dec.) 10, 1684, Esther Borton, b. England, 5 mo. (July) 25, 1667; d. 1719; daughter of John and Ann (Kinton) Borton. He is said to have accompanied John Borton and his family to America in the "Griffin" in 1679; to have lived at first in a cave in 'Haines Bank' on the South branch of the Ranocas Creek below Lumberton, N.J.

John Haines gradually became the owner of many acres of land in New Jersey and Pennsylvania. The first recorded survey of land was dated 11 mo. (Jan.) 1683, an abstract of which follows: "Memorandum of survey for John Haynes one parcel of land abutting on the South side of the South Branch of Northampton River and from a white oak thereby marked it runs S.W. 1/4 chains (1 mile) to a white oak for a second corner, then N.W. 25 chains to a black oak for a third corner, then N.E. to said river." Surveyed for 200 acres. He also located 50 and 100 acres of land in 1691. In 1687 he purchased 100 acres of land from Percival Towle; in 1693 200 acres of land from the executors of Thomas Ollive and 200 acres of land from Samuel Jennings; in 1694 85 acres of land from his brother Thomas; in 1702 965 acres of land in Goshen, Chester Co., Pa., including that part of West Chester, Pa., south of Gay St.; in 1710 254 acres of land in Chester Co.; and, along with Richard Haines, William Haines, Thomas Wilkins, John Borton, Benjamin Moore and Jonathan Haines, 2240 acres of farm and wood land in the Southern Part of New Jersey known as the "Friendship Tract" in 1711.

His will was dated November 4, 1728, and was probated Nov. 21, 1728. An inventory of his personal property was taken on November 14, 1728.

The Will of John Haines

Nov. 21, 1728, Evesham, Burlington, N.J.

The fourth day of the ninth month, called November, A. D. 1728, I, John Haines, of Evesham, in the county of Burlington, in New Jersey, husbandman, being sick and weak in body, but of sound and perfect mind and memory, praised be God Almighty for the same, and all other His mercies, I calling to mind the mortality of my body, and knowing that it is appointed for all men once to die, do make and ordain this my last Will and Testament. That is to say, principally and first of all I give and recommend my soul into the hands of God, who gave it, and for my body, I recommend it to the earth to be buried in a Christian-like and decent manner at the discretion of my executors hereinafter named, and as touching such worldly estate wherewith it hath pleased God to bless me with in this life, I give, devise and dispose of the same in the following manner and form:

Imprimis. I give and bequeath unto my dearly beloved wife, Hannah Haines, the use and benefit of that part of my plantation whereon I now dwell, with the use of my lower meadows during the time of her widowhood, and if she sees cause to remove off my said plantation, that then and in such case my will is that my son, Josiah Haines, do pay unto my said wife forty shillings a year during her natural life. I also give my said wife one equal third part of all my personal and movable estate, goods and chattels.

Item — I give and devise unto my said son, Josiah Haines, his heirs and assigns forever, all my above said farm and plantation, containing about four hundred acres of land, the above devised and only excepted. I also give my said son, Josiah Haines, his heirs and assigns forever, the one full equal half part of my saw mill and my land thereto belonging or taken up and surveyed to accommodate and supply the same with logs or otherwise.

Item — I give and devise unto my son, Jonathan Haines, his heirs and assigns forever, all that farm and plantation whereon he now dwells, containing two hundred forty and five acres of land, with two acres of meadow ground, to be laid off at the upper end of my upper meadows, next to my brother, Richard Haines' meadow.

Item — I give unto my grandson, John Haines, son of said Jonathan Haines, his heirs and assigns forever, seventy acres of land, which lieth at a place called the hay landing.

Item — I give and devise unto my son, Caleb Haines, his heirs and assigns forever, all the remaining full equal half part of my said saw mill and land thereto belonging.

Item — I give unto my said son, Jonathan Haines, his heirs and assigns forever, all my part of the above mill pond, or the land that said pond of water covers; that is to say, after the owners of said mill will let it go down and the water out of the said mill pond. I also give my said son, Jonathan Haines, his heirs and assigns forever, my share of the land adjoining on the north side of said mill pond.

Item — I give unto my son, Caleb Haines, his heirs and assigns forever, twenty-five acres adjoining to the plantation whereon he now dwells.

Item — I give unto my above said sons, Jonathan, Caleb and Josiah Haines, their heirs and assigns, severally and respectively forever, all my lots, pieces and parcels or tracts of Cedar Swamp, with the reversion of my proprietary rights to land in West Jersey, to be equally divided among them share and share alike.

Item — I give to my daughter Rebecca, the wife of Joseph Matlack, their heirs and assigns forever, and my daughter Rebecca, the wife of John Burrough, their heirs and assigns forever, two hundred acres of land in Goshen, in Pennsylvania, being part of that land which I purchased of Isaac Morris and David Lloyd, where said two hundred acres of land shall be laid off from my said land at the north end thereof and be equally divided between my above said daughters.

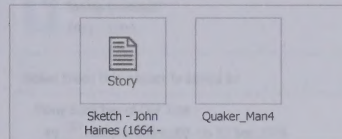

Item — I give and devise unto my daughter Esther, the wife of Thomas Evans, one hundred acres of land adjoining to the land devised to Rebecca and Phebe, to be possessed and enjoyed by the said Esther Evans, her heirs and assigns forever. I give and devise unto my sons, John Haines and Isaac Haines, and my daughter Mary, the wife of Thomas Lippincott, and to their heirs and assigns severally and respectively forever, all the remaining part of my said land purchased of Morris and Lloyd, and containing three hundred acres, to be divided among them as follows: That is to say, my son John shall have fifty acres of said land, to be laid out all the length of and adjoining to the land whereon he, the said John Haines, now liveth; and my said son Isaac shall have one hundred and fifty acres of the above said land all the length thereof adjoining to my son John's fifty acres, and all the remaining part of said three hundred acres of land, being one hundred acres, shall remain and be for my said daughter Mary.

Item — I give all the rest and residue of my estate to be equally divided among my four daughters, above named. I also appoint, nominate and ordain my son, Jonathan Haines, and my son-in-law, Thomas Lippincott, only and sole executors of this my last will and testament, whom I likewise order to pay my just debts and funeral charges, hereby revoking, disallowing and disannulling all former wills and testaments by me before this time made, ratifying this and no other to be my last will and testament. In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal the day and year above written.

JOHN HAINES. [seal]

Signed, sealed, published, pronounced and declared by the within named John Haines to be his last will and testament, in the presence of us the subscribers, William W. Haines (his X mark), Mary M. Whitehill (her X mark), John Burr.

Banking Dayton Ohio

The Exchange Bank was opened for business at the northeast corner of Main and Third Streets, April 5, 1852. It was owned by Valentine Winters, Jonathan Harshman, R. R. Dickey, and James R. Young. Messrs. Dickey and Young withdrew September 26, 1853, and Messrs. Harshman and Winters continued until 1857, when Mr. Harshman withdrew and John H. Winters became a member of the firm. The firm name was then changed to V. Winters & Son, who continued and largely increased the business, and for many years held rank with the best banks in the country. In the fall of 1861 the business was moved from the northeast corner of Main and Third Streets into a building which was afterward torn down to give place to the handsome structure now occupying the site. January 1, 1862, it was converted into a National Bank, known as Winters' National Bank. Its capital stock was fixed at three hundred thousand dollars, and its first officers as a National Bank were J. H. Winters, president; J. D. Platt, vice-president; J. C. Reber, cashier; J. H. Winters, J. D. Platt, Valentine Winters, L. B. Gunckel, J. Decker, J. M. Phelps, James Stockstill, Samuel Craighead, and E. M. Wood, directors. J. H. Winters retained the presidency of the institution until August 8, 1882, when he resigned the position for the purpose of making a tour around the world, and during his absence Valentine Winters served in (page 377) that position. J. H. Winters returned to Dayton and was elected to his old position as president of the bank August 8, 1883, and has served in that capacity ever since. The other officers remain the same as noted above. The capital stock remains at three hundred thousand dollars and a surplus of twenty thousand dollars has accumulated. Regular dividends have been made varying with earnings of the bank. They have been eight per cent until recent years; now they are but six per cent. In previous pages may be found references to, if not a complete history of, the Dayton branch of the State Bank. The last election of directors of this bank was held in January, 1864, resulting as follows: Peter Odlin, Horace Pease, J. H. Achey, J. Estabrook, T. A. Phillips, Dr. H. Jewett, and H. Gebhart. Peter Odlin was chosen president, and C. G. Swain, cashier. At the close of 1864, the stock of this bank was transferred to the Dayton National Bank. During the twenty years of the existence of the Dayton branch of the State Bank it had paid regular dividends, and at its close divided a handsome surplus, never having suspended payment for a day. The Dayton National Bank held its first election for directors February 7, 1865, with the following result: Peter Odlin, J. H. Achey, Horace Pease, G. W. Rogers, Harvey Conover, Herman Gebhart, Joel Estabrook, Dr. H. Jewett, and T. A. Phillips. Peter Odlin was elected president and C. G. Swain, cashier. The following changes have occurred in the board of directors and officers: H. S. Fowler was elected in the place of Herman Gebhart, deceased, January 14, 1866; William Clarke, in the place of Joel Estabrook, resigned, August 12, 1869; R. P. Dickey, in the place of H. S. Fowler, deceased, August 12, 1869; Josiah Gebhart, in the place of Dr. H. Jewett, deceased, January 10, 1871; Edward W. Davies, in place of Peter Odlin, resigned, November 8, 1871; W. P. Callahan, in place of Edward W. Davies, deceased, January 13, 1874; William H. Simms, in place of Horace Pease, deceased, August 12, 1875; George L. Phillips, in place of T. A. Phillips, deceased, January 8, 1878; Isaac Van Ausdal, in place of George L. Phillips, resigned, November 11, 1880; Calvin L. Hawes, in place of Isaac Van Ausdal, resigned, January 10, 1882; S. W. Davies, in place of William Clarke, deceased, June 15, 1882. J. H. Achey became president on the resignation of Peter Odlin, and William H. Simms was made vice-president December 13, 1883. Charles G. Swain died August 7, 1866, and was succeeded as cashier by H. C. Hiestand. Mr. Hiestand resigned January 14, 1869, and was succeeded by W. S. Phelps, who resigned July 31, 1884, and was succeeded by James A. Martin, the present cashier. At the present time the officers of this bank are William H. Simms, president; S. W. Davies, vice-president, and James (page 378) A. Martin, cashier. The capital, surplus, and undivided profits of the bank are $380,000, and the present board of directors are as follows: G. W. Rogers, H. Conover, R. R. Dickey, Josiah Gebhart, W. H. Simms, S. W. Davies, R. C. Schenck, Jr., John Cramer, and E. E. Hawes. The National Banking Law was passed by congress February 15, 1863. About the 1st of March following, a movement was inaugurated in Dayton for the establishment of a bank here under the new law. In a few hours' canvass of the city, about one fourth of the requisite capital stock was subscribed. The movement was, at the same time, general throughout the State. The entire amount of the capital stock, $125,000, was rapidly taken, and a meeting of the stockholders of the proposed new bank was held April 10th to finally decide as to the propriety of establishing the institution. On the 23d of April, a meeting of the directors was held, and the stockholders were requested to pay in their subscriptions. By the 24th, the stock was all paid up and the bank fully organized. The board of directors elected were as follows: S. Gebhart, Henry Herrman, Thomas Parrott, Caleb Parker, John L. Martin, Daniel E. Mead, Samuel Marshall, George W. Shaw, and Josiah Gebhart. The president of the bank was S. Gebhart, and the cashier, G. B. Harman. The certificate authorizing this bank to commence business was issued by Samuel T. Howard, acting comptroller of the currency, June 22, 1863, and on the 26th of the month the stockholders were notified by the cashier that certificates of stock were ready for delivery to the proper parties. In this connection, it may not be improper to note the rapidity with which national banks were established in Ohio, as compared with other loyal States. On August 20, 1863, there were in Ohio fifteen national banks with an aggregate capital of $3,043,000, while in all the other States there were but twenty-five national banks with an aggregate capital of $3,710,000. The largest bank in the Union at that time was the First National Bank, of Cincinnati, and the next in size was the Second National Bank, of Cleveland. The former had a capital of $1,000,000 and the latter of $600,000. New York State had five national banks with an aggregate capital of $670,000.

The First National Bank of Dayton, the history of the establishment of which is given above, continued business until 1870, when it went into voluntary liquidation, and was succeeded by the private banking firm, Gebhart, Harman & Co., consisting of Simon Gebhart, G. B. Harman, and W. B. Gebhart. This firm continued business until February, 1883, when it was merged into the City National Bank, which was incorporated with a capital stock of $200,000. The first board of directors of this (page 379) bank were Simon Gebhart, G. B. Harman, W. B. Gebhart, Ezra Bimm, Henry C. Graves, P. M. Harman, and Joseph R. Gebhart. The present board are the same with the exception that W. P. Callahan has taken the place of G. B. Harman. The capital stock of the bank is the same as at first; the surplus is forty thousand dollars, and the undivided profits are twenty-five thousand dollars. The location of the bank is at No. 39 West Third Street.

Smokehouse's emphasis is on fine cigars

Name of business: Smokehouse
Location: 2206 E. Sixth St. (Next to Keg 'n Bottle)
Telephone: (765) 644-0589
Owner: Joel Hackleman

Opened: 2012
Hours: 8 a.m. to 9 p.m. Sunday through Saturday
Employees: 7
Services: Smokehouse is the ninth store opened by Keg 'n Bottle owner Joel Hackleman. However, the store specializes in smoking products with an emphasis on fine cigars.

According to the owner: They come in all shapes and sizes, short, long, skinny, round and square. Some even look like torpedoes.

The ones made in Cuba are renowned. But these days the best come from the valleys around the city of Esteli, in Nicaragua's north central highlands, although Honduras also has a pretty good reputation.

We're talking about cigars here. To aficionados, Villa de San Antonio de Pavia de Esteli, as the area is officially known, is the promised land for cigar smokers, said Jimmy Hunter, the cigar wholesaler who supplies Hackleman.

El Producto Cigars were the smoke of choice for George Burns, but nowadays fine cigars have more imaginative names. ACID Cigars by Drew Estate, markets Blondies, c-notes and Extra Ordinary Larry.

Handmade in Esteli, Drew Estate cures the tobacco used in its cigars in special aroma rooms lined with herbs, oils and botanicals, Hunter said. Cigar maker Arturo Fuente markets a series of cigars trading on the reputation of Ernest Hemingway with names like Short Story, Best Seller, Untold Story and Between The Lines.

Some can cost $12 or more, and are housed in a handsome, portable wood humidior designed to keep the cigars moist. However, even the store's value priced cigars are stored in climate controlled display cases, Hackleman said.

Price isn't the point, though.

"I think it comes down to what you enjoy," he said.

In addition to cigars, the store sells cigarettes and loose tobacco and other related products, and it has a drive-thru window.

Moving cigars out of the Keg 'n Bottle store freed up space to expand the store's selection of wine and craft beers, particularly those brewed in Indiana.

"We're trying to expand on what's been working in our other stores," Hackleman said.

City man dies from wound suffered in double shooting

An elderly city man, who police believe shot his wife Monday then turned the gun on himself, died Tuesday at Methodist Hospital in Indianapolis.

Ivan Sheedy, 80, of 2111 Jefferson St., died at 8:05 a.m., according to a hospital spokeswoman.

HIS WIFE, Thelma Sheedy, 80, was pronounced dead at St. John's Medical Center just after noon Monday, according to Madison County Coroner John Noffze. Autopsy reports indicated she died as a result of a gunshot wound to her chest. She also sustained a bullet wound to her groin area, Noffze said.

Neighbors discovered the couple in the living room of the near southside home at about 11:30 a.m. Monday after hearing the man shouting for help.

Thelma Sheedy was unconscious, according to Lena Mendenhall, who found the woman slumped over on a sofa and Ivan Sheedy on the floor.

BOTH WERE TAKEN to St. John's Medical Center where Ivan Sheedy was stabilized before being transferred to Methodist by ambulance. He underwent emergency surgery there for a gunshot wound to his chest, a spokesman at Methodist said.

Anderson police detectives said they have yet to determine whether the deaths are the result of a murder-suicide attempt. However, Ivan Sheedy told investigators and ambulance personnel that he was responsible for the two shootings, according to APD Sgt. Mark Yeskie.

A .38-CALIBER HANDGUN, registered to Ivan Sheedy, was recovered from the scene, Yeskie said. The weapon was lying less than five feet from the man.

Relatives of the elderly couple told police Sheedy was suffering from hardening of the arteries and believed the medical problems were affecting his mind, Yeskie explained.

An autopsy is scheduled for Ivan Sheedy in Indianapolis today. The post mortem should help police determine if the fatal wound was self-inflicted, Yeskie said.

Also, investigators are awaiting reports from ballistics tests to determine if the weapon recovered was the same handgun that killed the Sheedys, he added.

Wife dead, husband hurt in double shooting

By JUDI TURPEN
Herald staff writer

An 80-year-old Anderson woman was killed Monday when her husband fired two gunshots into her chest then turned the weapon on himself, police said.

Thelma Sheedy, 80, of 2111 Jefferson St., was pronounced dead at St. John's Medical Center at 12:12 p.m. Monday, according to Madison County Coroner John Noffze. The woman died as a result of the chest wounds, according to autopsy reports.

IVAN SHEEDY, 80, was stabilized at St. John's and later transported by ambulance to Methodist Hospital in Indianapolis, according to Marlene Carey, vice president of corporate affairs at St. John's.

He underwent surgery for a gunshot wound to his chest and was listed in serious condition in the recovery room at the Indianapolis hospital at 10 p.m. Monday.

Ivan Sheedy told police he shot his wife and then himself, according to Anderson Police Department Sgt. Mark Yeskie. He gave investigators no reason for the shooting.

ONE NEIGHBOR, who discovered the woman covered with blood and slumped on a sofa, said she was alerted by shouts she heard coming from the couple's home.

'There was a lot of blood on them and I saw the gun. I didn't notice blood anywhere but on them. The gun was about four or five feet away from him.'

...Neighbor Lena Mendenhall

"He kept yelling, 'Call the police, call the police.' Why would he do that if he had done the shooting?" asked Lena Mendenhall.

Mendenhall said she first believed Sheedy was complaining about youths in front of his home.

"MY SON HAD PARKED in front of the house, but when he moved the car and Sheedy kept yelling, my sister and I went to the house," Mendenhall said. "He yelled, 'Call the police, I'm dying.'"

Mendenhall and her sister then entered the home and discovered the shooting scene.

"There was a lot of blood on them and I saw the gun," Mendenhall said. "I didn't notice blood anywhere but on them. The gun was about four or five feet away from him."

IVAN SHEEDY continued to ask for police assistance, but never mentioned his wife who was lying nearby, Mendenhall said.

"She was on the couch and kind of slumped over," the woman reported. "He was at the end of the couch on the floor."

Ambulance personnel were called to the home at 11:33 a.m., according to police detectives. It is believed the shooting occurred sometime after 11 a.m.

ANOTHER NEIGHBOR said she was working in her front-room sewing shop but failed to hear the shots from across the street.

"I didn't know anything until a customer went outside and came back saying there was a man calling for help," said the woman, who asked not to be identified.

"He (Sheedy) used to get mad about the kids parking around his house and noise and such," the woman commented. "I just thought he was mad because someone parked in front of his house at first."

ANOTHER NEIGHBOR, who has lived near the Sheedys for nearly 26 years, said he last saw Ivan Sheedy Friday.

"He came down every day, except weekends, and sometimes three or four times a day," the man said. "Lately, he hadn't been feeling too well and said she (Thelma) had been bad, too."

Others in the area said they didn't see the couple much, other than when they went to the East Lynn Christian Church less than a block from their home.

"THEY WENT EVERY Sunday," one man said.

But residents nearby reported hearing squabbles coming from the home, and the longtime friend said he had been concerned after Sheedy displayed two handguns to him some time ago.

Police recovered a .38-caliber handgun at the scene.

A CONVICT HAD NO NEED OF PAROLE AS DEATH CAME¹⁹

6-21-06

[Special to Herald.]

WINDFALL, Ind., June 20.—Fred Fisher is dead in the Indiana Reformatory of tuberculosis. He was a resident of Greentown, and was convicted of trying to kill Glenn Seagraves, who was a suitor for the hand of Fisher's sister, and to whose attentions Fisher objected. The men met in a cafe in Greentown several months ago and the shooting followed. Some weeks ago Miss Fisher began circulating a petition praying for the parole of her brother, that he might be brought home to die, but a few days ago she was notified by the reformatory officials that his case was hopeless and that he could not be moved, even though the petition should be granted. She is now directing her efforts to have the body sent back for burial.

and a bandanna or ski mask that covered his face.

After the robbery, the man fled north on Main Street and police dogs were able to follow his scent across the railroad tracks.

A man with a similar description robbed the Marathon Gas, 922 E. 38th St., at 4:30 a.m. on Oct. 31; Ricker's, 1935 E. 59th St., at 4 a.m. on Nov. 13; Ricker's, 2 N. Madison Ave., at 5:46 a.m. Nov. 16; and the Marathon Gas again at 3:40 a.m. Nov. 20.

Police say the robber has displayed a silver-colored handgun in all but one of the robberies and has stolen an undisclosed amount of cash at each convenience store and cigarettes from one location. No one has been injured in the robberies and the man has targeted stores where only one clerk was working during the early morning hours.

The robber has fled on foot after the robberies.

Lanane rides wave to return to Senate

By AVON WATERS

STATE REPRESENTATIVE
DISTRICT 25

Incumbent Indiana Sen. Tim Lanane, D-District 25, scored big along with other Democrats throughout the state and Madison County. With 100 percent of the precincts reporting, Lanane led Republican Dan Dykes, 22,080 to 13,933 — or Lanane received 61 percent to Dykes' 39 percent of the votes.

District 25 is made up of only townships in Madison County. It includes half of Pipe Creek and all of Monroe, Lafayette, Richland, Union, Anderson, Green, Adams and Fall Creek townships.

"My opponent ran a good race. I heard good things about him everywhere I went. I think, overall, the people are saying it's time we had a little more balance in the Statehouse," Lanane said of the wave of Democratic wins Tuesday. "I also hope this (win) means the people have liked what I have done so far."

Dykes raised only $18,000 to Lanane's $148,000. Lanane had a lot of money going into the campaign and had a lot of Political Actions Committees (PAC) money, Dykes said. But when looking at individual contributions, Dykes felt he outraised Lanane. He was encouraged despite the wide difference in funds to wage the battle.

"I learned a lot," Dykes said. "I feel like I had a good Republican base and great support from my family and friends."

Lanane

Dykes

He turned to shake his son's hand and said from Purdue his son posted information about Dykes on a MyFace Web site and helped campaign for him.

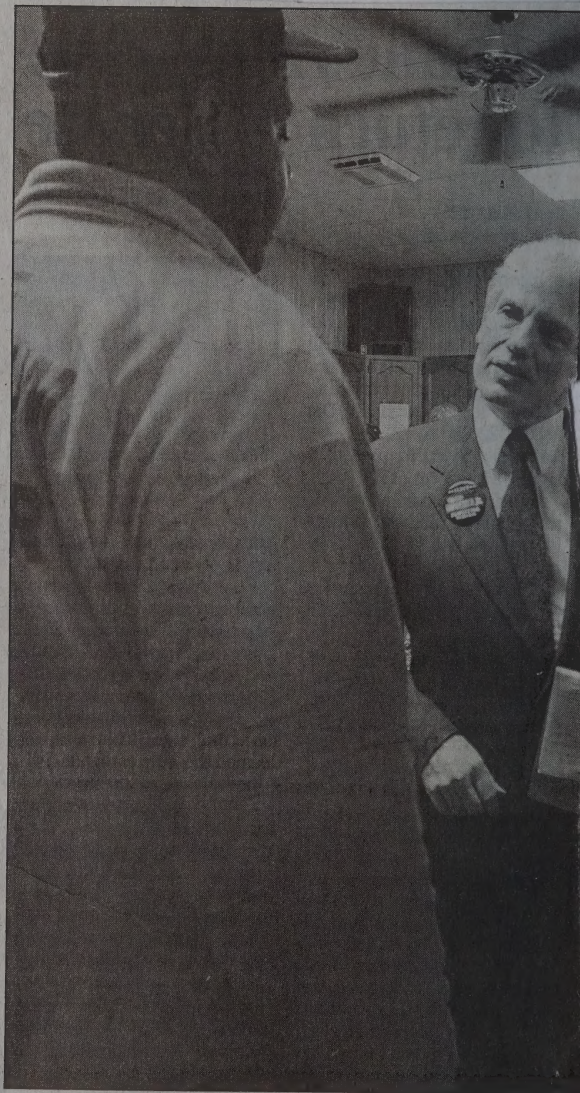

Dykes, an Anderson firefighter, has been in politics for about 20 years, serving on the Madison County Council for about 15 years. People can expect to see his name again, he just doesn't know where or for what.

"I don't think I'll be leaving anytime soon," Dykes said. "I don't know where I'll be two years or beyond that."

On what's to come, Lanane said, "One of the first things, raising the minimum wage is a priority for me. I hope we can work together to help areas like Madison County economically and for jobs."

The Pedigree Resource File is a new lineage linked database of records available on compact disc containing family history records submitted by individuals through FamilySearch Internet Genealogy Service. Family information is organized in family groups and pedigrees and includes submitted notes and sources. Many charts and reports can be printed from this data. Each disc contains about 1.1 million names. With the publication of every five discs, a master index for those discs will be published and packaged with that set of discs. With the publication of every 25 discs, a master index for those discs will also be published and packaged with that volume of discs. Discs may be purchased as sets or volumes.

About FamilySearch Pedigree Resource File:

The Pedigree Resource File is a new lineage linked database of records available on compact disc containing family history records submitted by individuals through FamilySearch Internet Genealogy Service. Family information is organized in family groups and pedigrees and includes submitted notes and sources. Many charts and reports can be printed from this data. Each disc contains about 1.1 million names. With the publication of every five discs, a master index for those discs will be published and packaged with that set of discs. With the publication of every 25 discs, a master index for those discs will also be published and packaged with that volume of discs. Discs may be purchased as sets or volumes.

Widening at AU delayed one year

By BARRETT NEWKIRK

barrett.newkirk@heraldbulletin.com

A planned upgrade to Fifth Street at Anderson University will have to wait another year because of unexpected delays.

The $2 million project, which will turn Fifth Street and a portion of College Avenue into a more pedestrian-friendly thoroughfare, should begin in May 2009 and be completed before students return for classes the following August, said Joe Royer, the university's director of facilities and property management.

"When we first started, everybody felt we could make it by this summer," he said. "Sometimes things take a little longer than what's anticipated."

The project is funded with federal grant money, but Anderson University is coordinating the design and construction, Royer said.

"We've never done this before, and therefore I don't know the exact time frame, and that's one reason we're waiting until next summer," he said.

After realizing that the bidding process would not begin until August, the university opted to wait until the following summer when fewer people are using campus streets and parking, he said.

2008-09 Concert Season at the Paramount Theatre Centre

Anderson
 Symphony
 Orchestra

The ASO invites new subscribers to join its season of beautiful music at a 50% off introductory offer their first year.

Saturday, September 20, 2008 7:30 p.m.

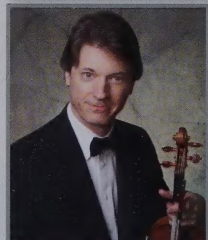

Season Opening Concert

Byron Plexico, Violin

J. S. Bach – Violin Concerto No. 2 in E Major
 Beethoven – Symphony No. 5

This season marks not only the 20th anniversary of Rick Sowers as ASO Music Director, but also the 20th anniversary of ASO's Concertmaster, Byron Plexico, as a member of the Anderson Symphony Orchestra.

To celebrate this grand occasion, Mr. Plexico will be the featured soloist for J. S. Bach's Second Violin Concerto. One of the most well known and beloved of all orchestral masterworks, Beethoven's Fifth Symphony will conclude the evening's festivities.

Saturday, November 1, 2008 7:30 p.m.

Halloween Concert

Orchestra and Conductor dressed in costumes

The ASO Halloween Concert is a fun event for the entire family! The orchestra and conductor will dress in their best costumes, and the kids will be invited to participate in the traditional Costume Parade. Prizes will be given for cutest, scariest, and most original costumes. Halloween music will include Weber's Phantom of the Opera, Saint-Saëns' Danse Macabre, a Harry Potter medley, Pirates of the Caribbean, and Kabalevsky's Gallop.

Anderson Symphony Orchestra 2008-09 Concert Season

Saturday, December 13, 2008 7:30 p.m.

Holiday Concert

Lori Mechem, Jazz Pianist
and Combo

Anderson native and well known Jazz Pianist, Lori Mechem and her combo will bring a new sizzle to the traditional ASO Holiday Concert. Seasonal selections will be played by Lori and combo alone and with the orchestra, and the "Duke's" version of Tchaikowsky's Nutcracker Suite will be featured. The audience will delight in the familiar "Nutcracker" tunes in a fresh and jazzy style that is so Ellington. The traditional sing-along for orchestra and audience as well as more season favorites will also be included.

Saturday, February 7, 2009 7:30 p.m.

Winter Classical Concert

Emily Stanek, Flute

Christopher Rouse – Flute Concerto
Respighi – Pines of Rome

We are very pleased to have Emily Stanek as our guest flutist for this evening's concert. Ms. Stanek is a highly regarded soloist in the region, and has held positions in several orchestras including the principal position in the Akron Symphony Orchestra. She will be featured on a relatively new work by the American composer, Christopher Rouse. The five-movement work includes simple melodic elaborations which evoke the traditions of Celtic, especially Irish, folk music.

Considered one of the masterpieces of symphonic literature for orchestra, Italian composer, Ottorino Respighi's Pines of Rome will bring a thrilling and powerful conclusion to this night's concert. Each of four movements depicts a location of pine trees around the city of Rome during different parts of the day. The final movement, "The Pines of the Appian Way" depicts legions of Roman soldiers making a triumphant entry to the city — all with a glorious crescendo and antiphonal brass throughout the hall.

Saturday, April 25, 2009 7:30 p.m.

Season Finale

The Mambo Kings

We welcome the critically acclaimed Mambo Kings for an evening of Afro-Cuban rhythms and jazz improvisation. The perfect combination of Latin sounds, jazz styling and rock and roll, the group has earned a reputation for taking the symphonic stage by storm. The ASO and the Mambo Kings are a winning combination—sure to start feet tapping and shoulders swaying. The Mambo Kings will take the stage to unleash their innovative arrangements of "Blue Mambo a la Turk," "Oye Como Va," "Tres Lindas Cubanas" and several other well-known songs.

ANNUAL REPORT.
Annual Report of the Gordon's Home for the Year 1902.

Twelve years ago, the cornerstone was laid for the building of the Gordon Children's Home. Eleven years have our doors been open to all Shelby county children who needed a home. We have tried to throw around each child in the home, or those put out into other homes, such as would be for their good.

We have one fault to find with the Shelby county people as also the citizens of Shelbyville in that they do not visit the home or take as deep an interest in the work as they should. Every Thursday is visiting day, and unless the children are quarantined against some contagion that we are careful to shield them from, we are glad to show you our home from garret to cellar. They are well fed, kept clean and are happy and cheerful. The lady board of managers would be glad to have you come and see for yourselves whether they are doing their duty toward those who are entrusted to their care. Not long since a lady was visiting from this city in another part of the State and she was asked how the Orphans Home was getting along in her city and she answered that she knew we had one but was sincerely sorry to state that she had never been in it and could furnish no information in regard to its progress. Is this not an injustice to Shelby county's Orphan's Home? Many of you who will read this report are ladies who are deeply interested in Home and Foreign Missionary societies which is perfectly right, but is this not a mission right at your door and don't you think you should at least visit and gain some information concerning its work? We do not ask you for your money, we only ask you for a kind word of approbation, if deserved; if not, we would be thankful for any kind criticism which might be offered. There is not one of us who is tired of the work, rather we are more interested and fascinated than ever before for we feel that we have had a small part in lifting children from bad environments to a better life.

The health of the institution during the past year has been good, with three exceptions. One of our children had inflammatory rheumatism, one lung fever and one case of typhoid.

We desire to thank all those who assisted us in donating presents for our Christmas tree. Our children look forward from one year to the next and think of the happy times they will have when Old Santa comes again.

Number of children received in our home during the year, girls 1, boys 5.

Number placed in homes 20, girls 8, boys 12.

Number sent to Ft. Wayne institute for feeble minded 4.

Removed by death 0.

Number remaining in the home 34, girls 7, boys 27.

Monthly meetings held 12, call meetings 9.

We feel glad to state that we have the foundation laid for a hospital where we can properly care for the sick from the institution. As soon as the weather permits it will be hurried to completion.

Respectfully submitted this eleventh

Ed-I'll send the info in two-four separate batches.

I could first find Chapman PERKINS in the 1850 Federal Census Pipe Creek twp Madison County IN pg 69 Dwelling #492, Family #492

John PERKINS 33 b IN
 Elizabeth 33 b OH
 Cinderella 10 b IN
 Isaac 8 b IN
 Chapman 5 b IN
 Ester 3 b IN
 Harriet 1 b IN
 Asa Lee 25 b OH (bro of Elizabeth)
 and two doors down Dwelling 494, Family #494
 John LEE 57 b PA
 Rebecca 50 b PA
 Caleb 17 b IN
 Andrew Lawrence 21
 Julia Ann (also found as July Ann) a daughter
 I later learned that the entire family of John LEE and Rebecca are on the same page.
 Above the John PERKINS family at #491
 Curtis Lawson and wife Sarah(a dau)
 Asa Lee with John PERKINS
 Just below John PERKINS family is
 John M. Poston and wife Nancy Ann (dau)
 (Asa, Caleb, Nancy Ann, Julia Ann, Sarah)

I've been unable to find John PERKINS and family in 1860, however, Isaac age 17 is found in the 1860 Federal Census in Duck Creek twp Madison County IN pg 147 #1013(both dwelling and family)living with a Wm Hendrick.
 Isaac H Perkins, from Duck Creek, enlisted in the Union Army 26 Jul 1862 as a private (as did Chapman, his brother) Co G 75th Infantry Regiment IN, in Indianapolis. He was mustered out on 08 Jun 1865 in Washington DC. His regiment was n the Stonee's River Battle at Murfreesboro TN. (Chapman deserted at Murfreesboro TN in Jan 1863).
 Isaac is found in the 1900 Federal Census Boone twp Madison County IN ED 88 pg 11B. Living with Isaac, Sarah E., Flora M., Frederick J, Nathaniel Hall and his wife Harriet (sister of Isaac), Israel, Delbert and Alma P.
 And that's about all I have on Isaac.
 Meanwhile, John PERKINS and family are found in the 1870 Federal Census Antwerp twp Van Buren County MI pg 200 Dwelling #12, Family #11
 John PERKINS 55 b NY (please note place of birth)
 Elizabeth 54 b OH
 Harriet 19 b IN
 Milton 16 b IN
 Asbrayne (later shown to be Asbreen) 14 b IN Hampton 9 b IN and Levi McPherson b IN. Don't know who this is.
 In the 1880 Federal Census Porter twp Ed 219 pg 23 #267 is
 Oliver Perkins 26
 Elizabeth 29 wife
 Nancy J 13
 Gertrude 10

Mary A 7
John 4

Roselle 2 and John PERKINS 69 Widowed FATHER Collier b IN fbIN mbIN

To explain Oliver as a another son, he is as 26 in the 1880 census born therefore c 1854. He m early at age 13, since his oldest dau Nancy was 13 when he was 26. He missed the 1850 census, not born yet, and had moved out by the 1870 census. Also, when he married a second time on 8 Mar 1901 he stated his mother's maiden name was Elizabeth LEE. (From the Marriage Records State of Michigan County of Van Buren Book C2 March 1901).

I think I'll stop for now. Will send the rest later today.

Indeed, yes. Perhaps the end of the century I would be able to see about. But I am not sure how to do this.

Isaac and Sarah's daughter, Sarah, is also married to the "Madison County" and had a son named Oliver A. Lee. I am not sure if this is the same Oliver A. Lee as the one who was born in 1854. The only one I can find is the one who was born in 1854. The only one I can find is the one who was born in 1854.

Also, my the driver that Emily "Elizabeth" was married to a John "Elizabeth" and she lived in the 1870s.

The driver's father was married during the same time living in the same area in 1870. He is still alive. But I am not sure if this is the same driver.

Great Stuff, I am loving it. Thank you

Looked in my Perkins file and found something I wanted to ask you about - but anyone with the answer can jump in.

Isaac's and Sarah's daughter, Chloe A. was married to an Unknown Custer? and had a son named Oliver A. My records show that family lore has Oliver as being on the first Byrd Expedition to the South Pole in 1947/48. Do you, or anyone else, know about this?

Also, my file shows that Cindy/Cinderella was married to a Tom Standsberry and she lived to be 102.

The above information received during interviews from an elderly aunt in 1980. She is still alive but does not remember anymore. -- Ed

Ed-part 2

To tie up some loose ends from the first part.

In 1880 John PERKINS was a widow. Elizabeth must have died between 1870 and 1880, however, there is no record of her death in State of MI or Van Buren County records. Don't know where or when she passed on.

Note that John PERKINS was in the 1880 census which was taken in July of that year. In the Anderson (IN) Democrat newspaper 15 Oct 1880 and 22 Oct 1880, there is a notice of a marriage license being issued to John Perkins and Nancy A. Posten. Nancy A. was a widow then, and she was the sister of Elizabeth. I wonder if John and his sister-in-law, both being widowers, decided to marry in IN? I can find no record of the marriage however. Also in the Anderson Democrat 21 Apr 1882 is a notice of 'An elderly gentleman by the name of Perkins died very suddenly last Sunday.....He had resided in Boon township but a short time.' I wonder if this was our John?

Chapman PERKINS, my g grandfather was b 1845 in Madison County IN, probably Pipe Creek twp. He joined the Union Army as a 'Pvt Co G, 75 Regt. time 3 yrs. Chapman went to the Antwerp twp Van Buren County MI area and married Catherine McVay on 5 Dec 1865. He also changed his name to Caleb, from Chapman. He and Catherine had a family and Chapman/Caleb disappeared (seems he had a propensity for disappearing) in the summer of 1884, and I have not been able to find him.

Part 3-

John PERKINS-This will be fast since I don't have much on him. The following census info will show you part of the problem.

1870-b NY age 55 (bc 1815)

1880-b IN age 69 (bc 1811) Fb IN Mb IN

I mentioned in the earlier part about him. That's all I have.

Elizabeth LEE was b OH 14 Aug 1818. She d bet 1870-1880, probably in MI but I didn't know where. She was the dau of John LEE and Rebecca DILLE.

1840-Federal Census Madison County IN pg 18

1850-Federal Census Pipecreek twp Madison County IN pg 69, as outlined previously.

John Lee d 28 Jan 1853/55. He may have been related to Light Horse Harry Lee, but I've not been able to find the connection.

As regards the DILLE connection. I would suggest you go to <http://homepages.rootsweb.com/~tnoye/a-Dilley.html> It is a great website and has a book 300 years of Dillies in America. The Index will give you much of the info.

Basically it is as follows:

George DILLE/Abigail HAND>

John DILLE of Woodbridge/Sarah>

John DILLE, Jr./Ruth TAYLOR>

David DILLE/Elizabeth WADE>

Caleb DILLE b 1759 NJ-d 1839 Henry County IN/Rebekea MARTAIN b 1761 VA-d 1834 Henry County IN. Both bur in Old Baptist Cemetery,

Knightstown Henry County IN. Caleb and his brothers all served in the Revolutionary War, and there are many write-ups regarding him. One of their daughters was Rebecca DILLE who m John LEE, as above.

Well, that's all I have for now. If you have any questions, let me know. If you have any info on any of the above whom I've mentioned, I'd sure be happy to receive it. Thanks. Phil Perkins

Hi

Looking for the Perkins and Allen families of Madison County, IN from 1830 on. George Perkins married Nora Agnes Allen in Wayne County, IN in 1829.

They moved to Madison County and had their children, and lived most of their life.

3 of their daughters married Harmeson brothers in the area. I have a lot of info on the Harmesons, and the names of all of George and Agnes's children.

Looking for their ANCESTORS.

Thanks

Manis/Mannies Family Memories from Donna Grusenmeyer to Jeffery Mannies

Peru, Miami Co., IN, USA, 1977 - 1994

Told by Donna Grusenmeyer to Jeffery Mannies

August 13, 1977 and February 8, 1994 in Peru, IN

Grandma Tennessee had fallen and hurt her knee when Ruby had taken Morry to the first grade. She wouldn't exercise her knee and it became stiff from then on. After Clinton died she would move from one child's home to another's.

She couldn't read or write. She died at the nursing home, but was only there for about a week. She always called me "Donnie." I would help Grandma cut out pieces of scrap material for her quilts. I would use a cardboard piece to cut around the material. We would sit for hours cutting while she babysat for Morry and me.

Larkin was wounded in WWII and died in the Marion Veteran's Hospital. He also traveled with the circus when he was young, so no one really knew him very well.

Jane died after complications of child birth. "Brother" her husband, refused to go for help while she was in labor and left her alone and she died. The baby died about ten days after she did and was taken care of by Brother Stover's parents.

Interview with Luther S. Mannies told to Jeffery Mannies

Aug 13, 1977, Peru, Miami Co., IN, USA

Interview with Luther S. Mannies as told to Jeffery Mannies

August 13, 1977 in Peru, IN

My family, (then named, Manis) moved to Chili, IN from Rogersville, TN because the work in IN was much better than Kentucky. My father (Clinton Manis) was a both a miner and a lumberjack in Rogersville, Hawkins Co., TN. Family lore has it that one day he was in a fight with another lumberjack and killed him with a double bitted ax. With a posse after him, Clinton put the family on the train for IN and changed the name from Manis to Mannies.

We lived in Chili, IN, just up from Peru, until I graduated from Chili High School, then moved into Peru and lived with my sister Bertha. When my father became ill (he was hit by a car) the rest of the family moved in and lived with Bertha.

My first job was mowing lawns while still in high school at Chili. I also worked for local farmers, worked in a wood working factory and a coal company in Wabash, IN. I put in fourteen years at the Peru Foundry due to the New Deal of FDR's. I also worked fourteen years as a butcher, brakeman on the Wabash railroad and was self-employed at the Custard Stand for 9 years (1958-1966) and retired as the custodian at two Peru churches.

I have always been a Democrat because it's a working man's party. When I was a young man I dreamed of becoming a history teacher at the high school level. It couldn't be done then unless you had the money and we didn't have it.

In my free time I would usually go swimming, fishing, play basketball, was on the debate team and ran track. On Halloween I would dump over shit houses (out houses). Everyone did.

PERRY MANIS

An Interview With Criminal Procecuter Shelton

Who Thinks There Can Be No Doubt That He Is The Guilty Party

A Strong Chain Of Evidence Wound Around The Imprisoned "Preacher"

An indictment will be returned against Perry Manis for the murder of Mrs.Nelson as soon as it can be prepared, said prosecutor Shelton this morning. "What is your opinion of the case?" was asked. In his official capacity as prosecutor,judge Shelton has necessarily heard all the evidence adduced by the grand jury, having in fact conducted the examination himself,so that his opinion in the present matter is invaluable. "There is not the least question in my mind of his guilt,he may be the sole murderer,the case against him is about as strong as circumstantial evidence can make it, articles identified as being in the murdered womans possession when she was last seen alive,Manis had when he turned up again at Anderson after leaving for Indianapolis on the same train Mrs.Nelson did,the evidence before the grand jury was convincing on that question". How about the anticipated trouble in regard to proving the identity of the remains? There will be no trouble in addition to the policy that was found and the set of false teeth which Dr.Ried of Anderson identified as a set he made for Mrs.Nelson. There is another point which only lately has developed,Mrs.Jones the woman now living in the house which Mrs.Nelson left, she remembers the kind of dress Mrs.Nelson wore for a very good reason,Mrs.Nelson made some secrecy of her departure because ahe was afraid a certain Lawyer at Anderson would attach her goods,she said the debt was not good and she wasn't going to pay it, thats what she told Mrs.Jones. Having sent her baggage on ahead of her to the depot by a drayman,Mrs.Nelson put on a peculiar dress--peculiar to people who were going traveling and went to the depot by an unfrequented route,the dress found with the remains was identified by Mrs.Jones as the same one Mrs.Nelson put on the day she left for the train. "Is there anything certain that Manis and Mrs.Nelson did leave on the same train?" There was a witness whose name I do not recollect who saw Manis getting on the train at Anderson. He did not know Manis at that tmje,someone said Look there is that--Preacher and he looked and it was the same man he afterwards saw on the 11th and that was Manis. I am assured by Mr.Kelly,who has just returned from Anderson,the secretary of state Myers,who was on the same train says he saw Manis and Mrs.Nelson on the train,but not the same cars. Nothing has been shown of the whereabouts of Mrs.Nelson after that. "What is your theory about where the murder itself occurred?" Without evidence as to the fact the law presumes that the murder occurred where the body was found, Mr.Nelson had told several persons,so it was testified to that she intended coming to either Indianapolis or Terre Haute with a man and start up a business. The business referred to was an assignation house. The man,while she did not say who he was,was generally supposed to be Manis. It may have been that Manis led Mrs.Nelson to believe that St. Mary was Terre Haute and they got off there. Mrs.Nelson was a woman who could not see more than a few feet away,her trunk has never been found. There are some witnesses who swear the trunk Manis brought back with him was Mrs.Nelson's while others say they do not believe it is. The evidence in that point is not clear. "How about the articles you say witnesses have identified as belonging to Mrs.Nelson?" Angie Conners,a girl whom Manis met at a camp meeting while he was preaching and whom he was trying to seduce,was given a pair of bracelets by him when he got back after his trip, he left Anderson on the 6th and returned on the 10th,so the murder was committed between those two dates. He told Angie,who is a nice respectable girl,2 different stories as to how he got the bracelets,hte bracelets were of an old pattern that when once seen could be easily identified,they were found in Angie's possession and have been identified as belonging to Mrs.Nelson. Angie swears that Manis gave them to her when he got back from Indianapolis. On the shawl question,the evidence is similarly explicit,said Judge Shelton. Frank Robinson,the boy witness,a cousin of Manis and a bright little fellow,swears that he was present when Perry,immediatley after his return from Indianapolis,presented his mother with a shawl; which he took from his trunk. For some reason she did not take it. That it must be remembered that when Manis left Anderson he was hard up for money,when he came back he showed a pile of bills which he said contained $600. There are any number of witnesses who will swear to that,there can be no trouble on that score,when he returned he began spending some of this money on Cookie McGriff,the witness we had here.

MANIS STRANGE ACTIONS

He Hides His Face From Visitors

Yesterday a party of half a dozen persons curious to see Perry Manis,called at the jail. When he heard them coming he covered his face with his hands and kept it hid during all the time they were there. They endeavored to talk to him,but he made no answer though some of them even entered his cell. He acts that strangely to every person who calls and seems to be afraid that someone may identify him. It is believed he is breaking down and under the strong case there is against hime it would not be surprising if he would utterly give way before long and make a confession.

An Atrocious Crime

1883, Terre Haute, Indiana

Source: UNKNOWN

Date Written: UNKNOWN

"Susan Melon was the widow of William Nelson who for many years a resident of Anderson Township, and who died in Anderson many years ago. On the 7th of September, 1883, Mrs. Nelson left the city going west on the Bee Line road on the evening train. During the day she called at the post-office and left an order for her mail to be forwarded to Kansas City, Missouri. She also employed a drayman of the name of Swearingen who took her trunk to the depot, and said to him that she was going to visit her son Jasper Nelson who had written to her and informed her that he was very sick. She informed Edward Downey that she was leaving Anderson never to return. She also talked to other people in the same strain about leaving Anderson. She was afterwards missed by her friends and no one knew of her whereabouts.

In the following month of October after she had taken her departure, a man of the name James Porter, while hunting in the woods about 3 miles southwest of the city Terre Haute, and while in a lonely portion of the forest, noticed his dog running to the side of a ravine with something in his mouth. He called the animal to him and saw that he had a human skull. The afternoon was then drawing close, but he concluded to institute a thorough searing into the matter, and see what the discovery would lead to. Soon he found another bone, and then another, until at least it appeared to him that probably some foul murder had been committed.

On the following morning, assisted by some neighbors, he continued the search. This time a complete set of artificial teeth, and some female clothing, were discovered. It was not long before the dead body of a woman was found hidden among the shrubbery and leaves of the wood. The coroner of Vigo County was immediately notified of the affair. He promptly arrived upon the scene, began an examination, and held an inquest.

83 cents in change was found in the dress pocket of the murdered woman. No clue, however, was obtained as to her identity. It was evident that she had been murdered as her skull was crushed in as if by a heavy blow, and there were signs of a struggle in the underbrush. The physicians who were examined as experts gave it as their opinion that she must have been dead for five or six weeks. Considerable excitement was created by a rumor that a girl at St. Mary's College of the Woods, had been missing and it was for a time thought that this might be her body, but an investigation soon put that at rest.

The people in the vicinity of the murder, however, kept up the search, hoping that something might turn up by which the remains would be identified. Finally, one day in some tall grass, a regularly written, but blood stained insurance policy issued by Bain & Harris, of Anderson, Indiana, was found. The policy was nearly apart in two places. The policy was made in the name of Mrs. Susan Nelson, and was for an insurance upon her household goods. This discovery furnished an excellent clue, and the detectives proceeded at once to work upon the case. Every neighboring village was visited and every stable keeper for miles was spoken to. The detective came to Anderson, and assisted by Marshall Coburn, whose energy was aroused by the knowledge of the perpetration of this crime, soon succeeded in establishing the fact beyond a doubt that the murdered woman was Mrs. Susan Nelson, of Anderson.

The detective with his assistant then went to the old brick house in which she had for a long time resided, situated on North Main Street directly opposite the present residence of Martin Gruenwald. A letter was found from her son, Jasper, postmarked at Brazil, Indiana, dated August 23, 1883. This was about two weeks prior to the time she had left Anderson. Brazil is only sixteen miles east of Terre Haute. This letter caused a great deal of comment, and suspicion was once directed to the son as being the guilty party. He had for years been rather prodigal in his habits, and it was known that with all his faults that his mother loved him deeply, and that he had a great influence over her. It was supposed that he had lured her to Brazil or Terre Haute, and for the purpose of obtaining money from her, had murdered her, and then made his escape. Jasper Nelson was accordingly arrested at Cape Girardeau, Missouri, on suspicion, and brought to Anderson for trial. Upon a full and complete investigation of all the facts stated by him as to his whereabouts at the time of the murder, the court was satisfied that he was innocent of the crime, although many persons have been convicted on less convincing evidence. Honorable W.R. Myers was his attorney and did valiant work in saving him from conviction.

Suspicion pointed to one PERRY MANIS, an ex-preacher of the gospel who resided near Frankton, in the county, and who has known to have been a frequent visitor to Mrs. Nelson's house. About this time Manis was arrested and placed in Madison County jail, for associating with prostitutes, and during his imprisonment, his actions in some way fastened suspicion upon him very strongly in relation to the murder of Mrs. Nelson. Among other circumstances it was shown he had left Anderson about the same time Mrs. Nelson did, and returned after an absence of four or five weeks. He left without taking a trunk, and with little money, and returned with a trunk and plenty of funds in his possession. In a little while after his return he purchased a horse and buggy and set of harness at a cost of $300.00. He gave as an explanation for his possession of the money that $225 of it was given by his mother and $25 by Maggie Moore, a lady friend. A boy was produced who stated that he had overheard him arranging a plan with Mrs. Nelson, in which they go to Kansas City, and establish a boarding house. This was another very suspicious circumstance against him. The officers secured possession of the trunk brought back by Manis, and when interrogated as to how he came in possession of it, he said that he had bought it of a man in the Union Depot in Indianapolis for $6.00; that the man was a stranger to him and told him he was out of money.

The detectives kept at their work, and day by day more evidence was forth coming, and the web was woven so closely about Manis, that finally an affidavit was filed against him in Vigo County for the murder of Mrs. Nelson. The grand jury at Terre Haute took jurisdiction of the case, and an indictment was returned charging him with murder. He was placed under arrest, and taken to Terre Haute, and on trial in the Circuit Court in that county, he was convicted of the crime and sentenced to imprisonment for life in the penitentiary, and here he died with a period of two or three years after his imprisonment.

It was known that when Mrs. Nelson left Anderson, she had in her possession over $600.00 which she had drawn out of the Exchange Bank a day or two prior to her departure. There was no doubt at all as to the identity of the murdered woman being Mrs. Nelson; portions of her clothing were produced in court which her friends and relatives recognized; and the set of artificial teeth, which were found in the woods were shown to have been made for her by Dr. H.B. Reid, who appeared in court and identified them. It was also shown that upon the trial that Manis and Mrs. Nelson were seen together in a lodging house at Terre Haute; that he had hired a buggy and had driven away with her, but had returned without her; while there was no direct evidence to connect him with the crime, all the circumstantial facts in the case were very strong.

The state of Indiana was represented at trial by the prosecuting attorney at Terre Haute, and William A. Kittinger of Anderson. Mr. Manis was defended by Judge Mack, of Terre Haute. Mr. Kittinger won fresh laurels in the management of this case.

Mrs. Susan Nelson will be remembered by the old citizens of Madison County as the sister of Fredrick and Michael Bronnenberg, who have lived in the county nearly all their lives.

The connection of PERRY MANIS with this crime was a severe blow to his family, none of whom had ever been accused or convicted of any crime. Manis, himself was not considered as having vicious habits and in fact, was at one time, an itinerant preacher, who had held religious meetings in the school districts throughout the county. It was claimed that, by his efforts, he made many converts to the Christian Faith. The only thing which he was accused, prior to this affair, was that he was a man of lewd habits, indolent, and disposed to associate with bad characters. In this respect he was altogether different from every one of his realtives, who were all well-to-do prosperous people."

THE GONG SHOW

Kelly Perkins of First Merchants Bank of Indiana uses her watch to track the length of announcements during the Chamber of Commerce Wake Up Breakfast Thursday morning at the Paramount. Announcements were limited to 30 seconds; the gong was tolled for anyone going over the limit. Perkins only had to ring the gong once for Dan Sager, CEO of the YMCA, who went over the time limit with a plug for the upcoming Corporate Challenge.

Next president's first priority should be fixing Social Security

By ALICE M. RIVLIN and JOHN W. KINGDON

The next president and new Congress face a daunting set of challenges come January 2009: Iraq war, troubled economy, global climate change, looming government debt, taxes, health care reform and rebuilding infrastructure, all vying for immediate attention. Such a long "to do" list presents two possible tactics: tackle the hardest problem first or get the easy ones out of the way. We prefer the latter and would start with Social Security.

With the large baby boom generation retiring and Americans living longer, the ratio of workers to Social Security beneficiaries is falling fast. Quite soon the payroll taxes coming into the Social Security system will be inadequate to pay all the benefits promised to retirees. Restoring the system's solvency is crucial to almost everyone's retirement security. The longer we put off setting Social Security on a firm footing, the more expensive the fix will be — indeed, we have waited too long already.

Fixing the Social Security program is relatively simple — far less complex than reforming health care. It requires choosing a combination of revenue increases and benefit reductions, but relatively small changes will do the trick. Emotions run high on which combination is best, but the list of options is short, and political compromise is clearly within reach.

Dealing with Social Security would build rebuild confidence in our elected leaders and give both Democrats and Republicans a legitimate chance to take credit for solving a major national problem. The new president would achieve a major objective, and congressional leaders would score a win as well. That accomplishment would build the momentum and relationships needed for tackling more difficult national problems that require pragmatic cooperation across party and ideological lines.

Of course, everyone has to compromise to accomplish a comprehensive Social Security reform. Republicans have to give up diverting existing revenues into private accounts. But they can preserve private accounts on top of Social Security and strengthen incentives for individual retirement savings without going to "privatization."

Democrats have to accept future benefit cuts, but they need not be drastic and can spare current retirees and lower-income beneficiaries. The package could include future gradual increases in the retirement age and concentrate benefit cuts on higher income people.

As part of the compromise, both parties must agree to revenue increases, but they, too, can be modest and can spare low-income individuals. For example, the cap on income subject to social security tax can be raised in gradual steps.

We know that nothing as politically charged as Social Security can be fixed easily. But saving Social Security is crucial and requires bipartisan agreement. It must be done sometime, and the sooner the better. Let's show that government can function, by solving the Social Security problem early in 2009.

Alice M. Rivlin, a senior fellow at the Brookings Institution, has directed both the Congressional Budget Office and the Office of Management and Budget, and has served as vice chair of the Federal Reserve. John W. Kingdon is professor emeritus of political science at the University of Michigan. LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

There's plenty to be thankful for these days

This letter is in response to Robert Johnston's letter of Saturday, June 14.

Anderson is a good place to live, but people think the way you do leave!

Crime is on every side of Anderson, east, west, north and south.

Use your time thanking God for one more day. Think about family with grief one way or another.

Thank God for good neighbors. I do have very good neighbors. Be thankful for life these days.

People vote for the ones of their choice. As for Kris Ockomon, he would have won the election had his address been 1600 Pennsylvania Ave., Washington, D.C.

After four years as mayor he can run for governor of Indiana and after four years there he can run for president of the USA. What would you write about then?

Have a nice day and don't let Chicken Little and Henny Penny outsmart you.

Mozelle Tellis
Anderson

Is there another leader like Kevin Smith?

Now that the city of Anderson has reverted back to the days before Kevin Smith was in office, I wonder how the people of Anderson feel. Are we happy that our city is beginning to struggle financially again? Are we glad that we are now subject to a new tax? Are we glad our new mayor bought new SUVs at our expense? I'm not! It is obvious now that the "dark cloud" is once again hovering over Anderson at the people's expense.

As the Democratic mayor and department heads bask in their new raises, the struggling segment of Anderson is forgotten about. But don't worry, in three and a half years, or the next time they need your vote, the Democratic Party will once again tell you how much they will help you. They will simply tell you to ignore the new tax, new SUVs, raises, out-of-control spending, and manipulation, and focus more on the goals of the Democratic Party. After all, isn't that what's important?

I do not know what the future holds for this city, but I can only hope that there is another leader like Kevin Smith out there. Hey, maybe we will get lucky and he will run again. Whatever the case is, I hope we as a city can make better decisions when choosing candidates.

James C. Stonoff

June 27, 1933 - January 3, 2021

ANDERSON — James C. Stonoff, 87, of Anderson, passed away to his Eternal Home on Jan. 3, 2021, surrounded by his family.

Born and raised in Logan, West Virginia, Jim left his home at 17 years old and began working at Stark & Wetzels Meats in Frankfort, Indiana. He spent his life in the meat-packing industry after moving to Anderson with his wife, worked for the Emge Packing Co., and part-time for Schoonover Meats as a meat cutter.

Jim loved bowling and bowled on several leagues. He was a team member with his trucking buddies who called themselves "The Emge Bulls." Jim also enjoyed traveling, fishing, squirrel and deer hunting, and camping.

Just before retiring, Jim was instrumental in creating Stonoff's Wild Game Processing, where many deer were processed for fall hunters.

The most noted attribute Jim possessed was being a man of his word. He stood by what he said he would do and what he believed. His life exemplified a strong work ethic of being on time and performing to the best of one's abilities, never shirking on his duties and responsibilities. These attributes were taught by example and live in his children and grandchildren today.

Jim's true telling character was shown most when given an audience. His sense of humor led him in becoming a comic, telling jokes and home-spun stories from memories of West Virginia and amusing listeners while playing Santa Claus at family Christmas.

This is how he lived his life until his final words in passing gave assurance he was ready to meet the Lord, having all accounts settled before the Creator of Heaven and Earth and the Saviour of our souls.

He is survived by his wife of 67 years, Janet A. (Slack) Stonoff; children, Melinda Sue (Terry) Songer and Brad (Linda) Stonoff; seven grandchildren, Leslie (Nathan) Wilson, Jason (Lyndee) Songer, Justin Songer, Ryan (Stephanie) Stonoff, Jeffrey (Shae) Songer, Jared (Ashley) Songer, and Jarryl (Ashley) Songer; 14 great-grandchildren; one great-great-granddaughter; siblings, Melvin (Mary Ann) Sheppard and Velma (Donald) Smith; and several nieces and nephews.

Jim was preceded in death by his parents, Pete Stonoff and Nola (Perkins) Baisden; siblings, Staton Stonoff, Robert Stonoff, Paul Baisden, Jonnie Hall, and Cleta Cle-venger.

A private family visitation will be held on Friday, Jan. 8, 2021, from 10 a.m. until 11:30 a.m. at Loose Funeral Homes & Crematory, 200 W. 53rd St., Anderson, IN 46013.

A private family graveside will follow the visitation at Anderson Memorial Park Cemetery.

ANDERSON

Today Earl found renewed strength and entered into his eternal home.

Born March 1, 1932, to Earl S. and Nellie M. (Brown) Perkins in Anderson, he would start his journey which would afford many memorable moments.

After graduating from Anderson High School in 1950, he married his high school sweetheart, Virginia Boyer in March of 1951. That union would produce three children, Jennifer, Jeff and Julie; also being blessed with Sandy, their "adopted" daughter. Earl worked for Top Value for several years, followed by service in the auto industry.

His greatest delight was his love of family. He had three grandchildren, Joe Key and wife Jess (Sanderfur), Jennie (Robinson) Bowen and husband Jeremy and Janelle Robinson and soon-to-be husband Dyl Cape. May of 2016 would bring his first great-grandson, Jagger Bowen.

He and Virginia celebrated 65 years of marriage, and we are sure he is already anxiously awaiting the day he and "Ginny" will be together again.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Earl and Nellie Perkins; in-laws, Roscoe and Pauline Boyer; brothers-in-law, Max Boyer and

Rev. Terry Bailey; son, Jeffrey Perkins; and numerous aunts, uncles and cousins.

Surviving to cherish his memory are his wife, Virginia; beloved dog, Tinkerbelle; daughters, Jennifer, Julie and Sandy; grandchildren, Joe and Jess, Jeremy, Jen, Jovi and Jagger, and Jan and Dyl; brother and sister-in-law, Frank and Barbara Hutton; sisters-in-law, Carolyn "Susie" Bailey and Frances "Tiny" Boyer; and many nephews, nieces and cousins.

Services will be conducted at 1 p.m. Monday at Brown-Butz-Diedring Funeral Service & Crematory with Rev. Timothy Bailey and Jennifer Robinson officiating. Burial will follow at East Maplewood Cemetery.

Visitation will be from 6 to 8 p.m. Sunday at the funeral home and one hour prior to the service on Monday.

Memorial contributions may be made to Connector Pointe Church.

OUR STORY THROUGH PICTURES

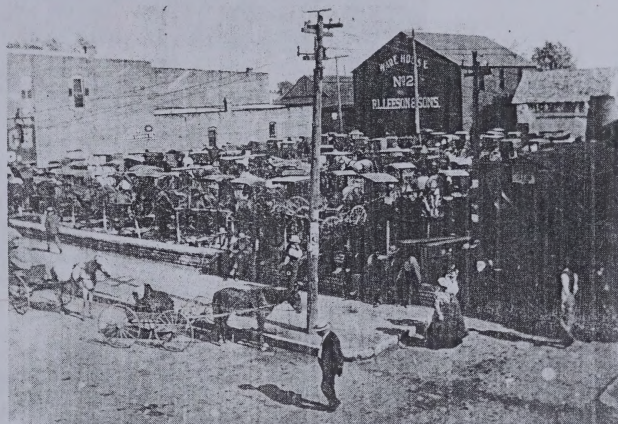

R. L. LEESON AND SONS

In 1877 Captain R. L. Leeson established his first store in Elwood. Four separate Leeson's Stores were built between 1877 and 1934 all were destroyed by fire except for the one which still stands at the corner of South A and Anderson streets. That structure was recently purchased by the Saint Vincent Hospital Foundation. Leeson's at its largest occupied several buildings in the downtown area and was truly a first class department store. It remained a vital part of the Elwood retail industry until the advent of the shopping mall. So many people have fond memories of Leeson's and are truly saddened by the fact that it no longer exists. One customers fond memory is listed here.

Why buy it?

It's the safe choice for sedan buyers. If you want a roomy four-door car with a quiet cabin and soft ride, it does a great job.

Why hesitate?

An optional sport suspension package seems like a good idea.

Good's Candy Shop

Expanding outside the box

BY Samantha Smith

Above: Randy Good is the third-generation owner of Good's Candy Shop, founded by his great aunt in the 1940s.

For the average sweet tooth, there's nothing more rewarding than rich, gooey chocolate, filled with nuts, flavored creams, or cherries. And in Anderson, there are few people who know more about making quality, mouth-watering chocolate (and fudge and ice cream and much more) than Randy Good, owner of Good's Candy Shop.

Located on 53rd Street, Good's Candy Shop is a family-owned store that offers not only custom chocolates, hand-dipped ice cream, and tours of the factory. It also gives customers an experience to remember.

The business owes its success to Good's great aunt, its founder, who learned all she could working as a teenager for a candy company in the 1940s. When she got older, she started her own company in her house. The business has since been passed down through generations to Good's grandparents, then his parents, and now Good, who bought the company in 1991.

His previous experience included working at a doughnut company after his parents moved the candy store to Anderson. Years later, he bought the family chocolate shop and has taken the business to new heights.

In particular, Good has greatly expanded his selection in the last 15 years. Claiming that the trend of the traditional boxed chocolate is taking a downward spiral, Good has kept up to date by offering new items and renovating the old. "We are starting to see a change for more custom work in the candy industry, a change to more sophisticated pieces like truffles and caramels," he states. "I think that is because there is so much more information out there now, and because people travel more, they are acquiring different tastes. I think that there is still going to be boxed candy, but it's going to become more sophisticated and refined."

Good's chocolate work has certainly become more sophisticated. The walls are covered in racks of customized chocolate bars ranging from logos to "tool sets." The floor is a maze of cases with an endless supply of all the choices of chocolates and truffles a chocolate addict could want.

Though Good's endless supply of chocolate treats and goodies are available to the general public, the shop's most popular customers are corporate businesses who have jumped on the bandwagon by ordering customized chocolates for employees. Forget engraved name plates and gift certificates. "When you give someone chocolate," Good explains, "you are touching on emotions that no other gift can: sight and smell, the name, which says quality, and then, of course, the taste. There is no other sensual experience like chocolate. Nothing else can measure up."

A recent addition to the shop is the hand-dipped ice cream, a sweet tactic to attract customers during the summer months when chocolate buying declines. Many candy shops would close in the summer due to the business slump. However, when Good took over the business, he built the new store with the ice cream shop in mind for the future. Thankfully for Anderson ice-cream lovers, steady business allowed him to put it in earlier than anticipated, and it has become quite a success.

All these changes occurring in only a few years is risky for a business owner.

Some are not so bold, claiming that the inconsistency would drive away business. Yet Good claims he is doing what customers want. "We listen very closely to what people say. Whether it's through their personal comments or through their pocketbook, we pay attention. We have introduced new ideas and have done away with others because it simply is not selling."

Is that his secret? What is it that keeps Good's Candy Shop growing and becoming more prominent in the Anderson business community? It isn't one specific thing. Good explains, "Since 1992, we have had double-digit gains. I think it's because of our quality product, unsurpassed service, community involvement, diversity, and just the fact that we are always willing to develop new products and sell existing ones. I don't know if there is anything specifically that we have done that has kept us moving forward. It's just a combination of staying alert to what is going on."

Good is not just in the candy business. The smiles and thanks from customers he receives make his job worthwhile. Finding happiness in a compliment and a smile is one of life's easiest pleasures, and one that Good experiences every day. "I am never any happier than when I see a smiling customer that is highly complimentary of what we do. It's not the volume of people, it's the one guy who takes the time to say, 'Thanks a lot. We're glad you're here. I appreciate your product,'" he comments. "That's my favorite part, knowing you are impacting people's lives in a positive way."

This positive and warm experience meets customers at the door, where they are greeted with a cozy atmosphere, a warm smile, and all the comforts chocolate promises to offer. Good explains, "It's not the supermarket experience. Customers don't walk in, get what they need and walk out, planning to be back the same time next week. We impact people's lives and make a memory for them. I'm so happy to be able to provide that. Not many people can do that every day."

What is next for the candy shop? With no cookie cutter way of running his business, Good is excited about the possibilities. All he knows is that he wants to keep satisfying his customers and sharing his love for this most sensual gift with others. ■

MAN DEAD, WIFE HURT IN TRAGEDY

"Oral T. Martin Is Found Shot; Wife Badly Injured"

Oral T. Martin age 53 of 1621 Halford Street, a World War I Veteran and resident here many years is dead of a gunshot wound and his wife Mrs. Gladys Martin age 46 is serious at St. John's Hospital from injuries of the head as the result of a tragedy at the family home late Sunday night. Police and County Coroner Ralph Mattingly, who are conducting an investigation, assert that no definite statement can be made yet concerning details of the tragedy. The couple was found in their bedroom by James Bronnenberg age seventy, father of Mrs. Martin, who was in another room in the house. According to a version of the tragedy given by Mr. Bronnenberg he was aroused last night when he heard water running in the bathroom and later a report that sounded like a shot. Officers state that Bronnenberg told them he rose to investigate and after finding nothing in the bathroom turned on a light in the bedroom occupied by his son-in-law and daughter Mr. and Mrs. Martin. He said he found Martin lying in bed partly dressed and apparently unconscious and Mrs. Martin in bed with blood around her head with a shotgun lying at the end of the bed and a hatchet near the side of the bed occupied by his daughter. He told police that his daughter was unable to talk. Police have the shotgun and hatchet. Officers found the shotgun at the end of the bed and a hatchet along side of the bed when they answered a call to the home about 1 a.m. Martin and his wife were taken to St. John's Hospital in ambulances of E.S. Albright and Brown and Eckenberg. Mr. Martin died two minutes after he had been admitted to the hospital. Coroner Mattingly states that examination today indicated that Martin's death apparently was from a shotgun wound in the left side of the chest at the lower part of the ribs. Mrs. Martin is said to have three wounds in her head and police state that the injuries apparently had been inflicted by a sharp instrument. Coroner Mattingly states that he cannot render a verdict in the case thus far because there were no witnesses to the tragedy. If Mrs. Martin rallies, efforts will be made to get all account from her, but lack of this information authorities have refrained from making a statement as to details of the tragedy. The condition of Mrs. Martin remained suspicious today at the hospital. Mr. Martin a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Martin had lived in Anderson and vicinity most of his life. He entered the Army during World War I and served for many months. He had been employed at Dynea Corporation Plant in the last few years. He was a member of the Modern Woodmen, Auxiliary Police and George Hockett Post No. 127 American Legion. Surviving are the widow, three children; Mrs. Gerald Stottlemeyer and Mrs. James Martin of Anderson and Mrs. Joseph Gero of Michigan, a brother Thomas Martin, Anderson and four sisters Miss Carrie Martin and Mrs. Bessie Hershberger, Middleton; Mrs. Hazel Manis, Richmond and Mrs. Vernon Stephens, Anderson. The body of Mr. Martin was taken to Charles Nuckols Funeral Home and will be returned to the residence Tuesday at 1 p.m. Funeral services will be conducted at the Whetstone Church Wednesday at 2 p.m. The body will lie in state at the church for one hour preceding the rites. Rev G.R. Osborne pastor of the First U.B. Church will be in charge. Burial will be in East Maplewood Cemetery.

Aunt Dorothy and Cousin Suzanne talk about family

December 2006, Joe Louis and Judie Luna's house

At the formal dinner table in Mom and Dad's house, mid December 2006, Aunt Dorothy (Dorothy Sprinkle McSpadden) and Suzanne McSpadden Marcum talk about Dorothy's family.

Aunt Dorothy's (and therefore Julia Ernestine's) father was John Lee Roy Sprinkle. He was named Lee for the Lee family in upper east Tennessee. Supposedly a French family. They were interrelated to the Jernigan family. He later dropped the name Lee because it got blended together with the Roy to be "Leroy", which he did not like.

He was from "The Head of the Creek". From McMin County. He died when he was 32. Aunt Dorothy:

"He went away for a time to convalesce, but when he knew that he was not going to live, he came home to be with his family. Aunt Dorothy was four and remembers being told to come see him because he was "going away". He had to be carried in because he could not walk and was put in a chair. She wanted to get in his lap, but he was too weak to lift her. "My granddaddy said to him: 'Roy lets just tell her to sit by you.' "No I want her in my lap." "So Granddaddy lifted me up and put me in his lap." "I remember the doctor carrying him in the house".

Well, the story was. My brother was younger than I. As a baby he had colds and all that kind of stuff. Some such, we always had an eight party line out in the country. He rode over and called the doctor. He took a terrible cold and couldn't seem to throw it. His doctor said to my mother "Roy needs to go to Florida for the winter". They owned a little crossroads grocery at Head of the creek. If grandmother would take care of the store. If she would take care of the kids, which she did do.

Roy had two brothers out there. One of them got a job with Express. They were there. Uncle George had married and Uncle Jim had married. Tuscon Arizona. He stayed that one winter. Gradually he was getting paralyzed from the legs up. He was very alert til the day he died. He told all of us goodbye. I do remember Mrs. Small saying "come on children, lets all go say goodbye to your daddy". I kind of remember saying goodbye to my daddy when he wasn't going anywhere.

For Bill he got a billy goat wagon. and granddaddy got the billy goat. We had a black lady that worked for us. She had a little boy and she brought him with her. He said "I want to drive the wagon first". My granddaddy said, I'll tell you what, let me walk beside the wagon and you can take turns holding the reins. That was his christmas.

His daddy was named John. John Clark. John Clark Sprinkle.

The Clark was a family name.

Lennie Caroline McAmis

I thought Lennie came from Caroline.

It really came from Melinda.

Mother was Lennie

My grandmother's sister. My grandmother was short stocky woman. Had fourteen children, raised twelve. Theodocia Manis.

Who were you named for Dorothy. A friend. An old old friend of the family. Roy I have asked you twice to name your children for me. Elizabeth. My daddy liked that name. I'm trying to find out if that's when the book the Wizard of Oz came out.

Julia Anis Copeland.

They had six boys and two girls. The oldest was a girl and the youngest was a girl. Cora and Catherine Uncle Bob and Uncle Jim. I'll have to think about the next one. The youngest one was Ernest and Charlie. Third from the youngest.

He sent me cards from Florida. I have two of them still. But I remember the day he came home from Arizona. The thing that made me remember was the doctor carried him in and put him in a rocking chair.

John Clark Sprinkle. All the sudden he as a whole family of grandchildren who don't have a father. He as the oldest of his siblings. He never went to college but made sure his brothers did. He fell out of the back door and broke his hip.

He sold the farms and bought the store and sent them to good schools. He owned a huge farm. A peach orchard. My daddy and my mother when they married moved into a house up at the peach orchard. McAmis house still stands, at head of the creek. Slightly below Sweetwater. The peach orchard was fifty acres. The farms were around 200 acres. You can climb up high and pick the peaches.

And besides, Granddaddy had six sons. He lived down on the level part of the farm. Mother and Daddy lived up on the hill. He sold a lot of the produce from the farm. Overalls, nails, peaches, potatoes.

Look at the curls, look at the blonde, that's your grandmother (Julia Ernestine). She was 50 when she died.

Mother is the one who's shoes are always messed up.

Julia was the cut-up in the family. The most delightful person. She was funny. She had learned from our doctor who was a comic too, and she head learned to do the Irish jig when she was young.

Lennie Caroline McAmis Sprinkle, your great grandmother.

Joseph T. Manis

5 April 1906, Stoneycreek Township, Indiana

Article that appeared in an Anderson, Madison County, Indiana newspaper on April 6, 1906.

"Joseph Manis, the aged Stoneycreek Farmer who was so brutally treated by his wife, Patience Manis, and his daughter Ada Fox, died at 5:40 last night at his home, six miles southwest of the city. At the time of his death, Mr. Manis was 80 years, 5 months and 5 days of age.

The Manis family affairs were aired in Justice Lee's court about two months ago and the fact was brought out that his wife and daughter had beaten him with a club and had broken three ribs while he was helpless from paralysis. Both were arraigned in Justice Lee's court and on a plea of guilty, were fined $25 and costs in each case. The neighbors said that Mrs. Manis had often expressed the wish that her husband would die so that she would have undisputed possession of the little 30 acre farm.

At the time of the matter the aged man was taken to St. John's Hospital and was much improved when returned to his home. Since that time the neighbors have taken a hand in the matter and have seen that the unfortunate old man was not abused.

For the past few weeks he has been under the care of Dr. John Cook, of Pendleton and has recieved the best of medical attention. Manis' system, however, broken by the previous abuse could no longer sustain him.

Joseph Manis was for years one of the most highly respected citizens of Stoneycreek Township, and was one of the early settlers and helped to clear off the dense forests at an early day. He spent most of his life on the little farm where he died yesterday. When at his prime, he was well known as a man who stood for everything that was right, and was fearless in his expression of right. Besides the widow, he leaves two children. Hernan Manis and Mrs. Ada Fox.

Death was due to pneumonia. It is said that neighbors served notice on his family, who had abused the old man, that they would be held responsible to them and not the courts should there be a repetition of the cruelty inflicted and that since, Manis had been well treated."

November 1779 when he was discharged by his said Captains, but whether he received a written discharge or not he cannot now state tho' he thinks he did not as it was not customary with the militia's officers then to give

A little bit more information to add to my last query:

Jesse and Eliza Maness had 10 children: James b. 1844, Amanda b. 1848, William b. 1849, Martha A. b. 1850, George A. b. 1852, Elizabeth C. b. 1854, Christopher b. 1857, Alfred A. b. 1858, Jesse b. 1860 and Hannah E. b. 1864.

The last census that I have Eliza on was in 1900 Greene Co. Tenn and the last census that I have Jesse on was 1910 Greene Co. Tenn.

Any information on this family would so much be appreciated.

Ed-part 2

To tie up some loose ends from the first part.

In 1880 John PERKINS was a widow. Elizabeth must have died between 1870 and 1880, however, there is no record of her death in State of MI or Van Buren County records. Don't know where or when she passed on.

Note that John PERKINS was in the 1880 census which was taken in July of that year. In the Anderson (IN) Democrat newspaper 15 Oct 1880 and 22 Oct 1880, there is a notice of a marriage license being issued to John Perkins and Nancy A. Posten. Nancy A. was a widow then, and she was the sister of Elizabeth. I wonder if John and his sister-in-law, both being widowers, decided to marry in IN? I can find no record of the marriage however. Also in the Anderson Democrat 21 Apr 1882 is a notice of 'An elderly gentleman by the name of Perkins died very suddenly last Sunday.....He had resided in Boon township but a short time.' I wonder if this was our John?

Charles Lamb and Asbreen lived in the South Bend IN area. She d in Grand Rapids MI 10 Aug 1915 and was buried Riverview Cemetery South Bend IN along with her husband Charles.

Chapman PERKINS, my g grandfather was b 1845 in Madison County IN, probably Pipe Creek twp. He joined the Union Army as a 'Pvt Co G, 75 Regt. time 3 yrs. Enlisted July 26 1862 Forestville In and was mustered at Indianapolis age 18. He deserted as follows: Feb 28/63: Deserted Jan 23/63 near Murfreesboro, Tenn. No roll at Co dated June 8/65: Deserted while on a scout near Murfreesboro Tenn. Jan 23/63 Prisoner of War Records show him captured and paroled at McMinnville Tenn. between (difficult to read-could be a'returned') Dec 7 62 and Jan 24, 63 by Genl Morgan reposted at Camp CArrington, Ind date not given present April 30 63 sent to Regt on or before June 6/63. Stoppage (difficult to read) for expense of arrest $5.00'

Chapman went to the Antwerp twp Van Buren County MI area and married Catherine McVay on 5 Dec 1865. He also changed his name to Caleb, from Chapman. He and Catherine had a family and Chapman/Caleb disappeared (seems he had a propensity for disappearing) in the summer of 1884, and I have not been able to find him.

Another brother Hampton returned to In and is found in the 1900 census Elwood town Madison County IN ED 107 Sheet 15

Hampton Perkins 33

Malinda wife 26

Rosa 8

John S 6

James E 4

Hampton visited relatives in MI and told of seeing Chapman/Caleb, but would never say where. We suspect it was in IN. Hampton d 18 May 1938 and was bur Elwood Cemetery in common ground. No stone.

As mentioned earlier sister Harriet m Nathaniel Hall and they were living with Isaac.

Part 3-

John PERKINS-This will be fast since I don't have much on him. The following census info will show you part of the problem.

1850-b IN age 33 (bc 1817)

1870-b NY age 55 (bc 1815)

1880-b IN age 69 (bc 1811) Fb IN Mb IN

I mentioned in the earlier part about him. That's all I have.

Elizabeth LEE was b OH 14 Aug 1818. She d bet 1870-1880, probably in MI but I didn't know where. She was the dau of John LEE and Rebecca DILLE.

1794-John LEE b 25 Dec 1794 PA, likely Washington County

1797-Rebecca DILLE b 20 Dec 1797, probably in Washington County PA

1806-Caleb DILLE in Belmont County OH with family

1820 Federal Census Richland twp Belmont County OH pg 200

Caleb DILLE 2M<10, 1M 10-16, 1M 45 and >, 1F 16-26, 2F 45 and >. (Caleb the M45, Rebekea MARTAIN, wife of Caleb, F45) and living next door

John LEE, Elizabeth LEE, and wife Rebecca DILLE.

1830-Federal Census Henry County IN pg 81

John LEE and family.

aft 1830-bef 1837 Moved to Rush County IN John LEE and family.

1840-Federal Census Madison County IN pg 18

1850-Federal Census Pipecreek twp Madison County IN pg 69, as outlined previously.

John Lee d 28 Jan 1853/55. He may have been related to Light Horse Harry Lee, but I've not been able to find the connection.

As regards the DILLE connection, I would suggest you go to <http://homepages.rootsweb.com/~tnoye/a-Dilley.html> It is a great website and has a book 300 years of Dillies in America. The Index will give you much of the info.

Basically it is as follows:

George DILLE/Abigail HAND>

John DILLE of Woodbridge/Sarah>

John DILLE, Jr./Ruth TAYLOR>

David DILLE/Elizabeth WADE>

Caleb DILLE b 1759 NJ-d 1839 Henry County IN/Rebekea MARTAIN b 1761 VA-d 1834 Henry County IN. Both bur in Old Baptist Cemetery.

Knightstown Henry County IN. Caleb and his brothers all served in the Revolutionary War, and there are many write-ups regarding him. One of their daughters was Rebecca DILLE who m John LEE, as above.

Well, that's all I have for now. If you have any questions, let me know. If you have any info on any of the above whom I've mentioned, I'd sure be happy to receive it. Thanks, Phil Perkins

Ed-I'll send the info in two-four separate batches.

I could first find Chapman PERKINS in the 1850 Federal Census Pipe Creek twp Madison County IN pg 69 Dwelling #492, Family #492

John PERKINS 33 b IN
 Elizabeth 33 b OH
 Cinderella 10 b IN
 Isaac 8 b IN
 Chapman 5 b IN
 Ester 3 b IN
 Harriet 1 b IN
 Asa Lee 25 b OH (bro of Elizabeth)
 and two doors down Dwelling 494, Family #494
 John LEE 57 b PA
 Rebecca 50 b PA
 Caleb 17 b IN
 Andrew Lawrence 21
 Julia Ann (also found as JulyAnn) a daughter
 I later learned that the entire family of John LEE and Rebecca are on the same page.
 Above the John PERKINS family at #491
 Curtis Lawson and wife Sarah(a dau)
 Asa Lee with John PERKINS
 Just below John PERKINS family is
 John M. Poston and wife Nancy Ann (dau)
 (Asa, Caleb, Nancy Ann, Julia Ann, Sarah)

I've been unable to find John PERKINS and family in 1860, however, Isaac age 17 is found in the 1860 Federal Census in Duck Creek twp Madison County IN pg 147 #1013(both dwelling and family)living with a Wm Hendrick.
 Isaac H Perkins, from Duck Creek, enlisted in the Union Army 26 Jul 1862 as a private (as did Chapman, his brother) Co G 75th Infantry Regiment IN, in Indianapolis. He was mustered out on 08 Jun 1865 in Washington DC. His regiment was n the Stonee's River Battle at Murfreesboro TN.
 (Chapman deserted at Murfreesboro TN in Jan 1863).

Isaac is found in the 1900 Federal Census Boone twp Madison County IN ED 88 pg 11B. Living with Isaac, Sarah E., Flora M., Frederick J, Nathaniel Hall and his wife Harriet (sister of Isaac), Israel, Delbert and Alma P.
 And that's about all I have on Isaac.

Meanwhile, John PERKINS and family are found in the 1870 Federal Census Antwerp twp Van Buren County MI pg 200 Dwelling #12, Family #11
 John PERKINS 55 b NY (please note place of birth)
 Elizabeth 54 b OH
 Harriet 19 b IN
 Milton 16 b IN
 Asbrayne (later shown to be Asbreen) 14 b IN Hampton 9 b IN and Levi McPherson b IN. Don't know who this is.
 In the 1880 Federal Census Porter twp Ed 219 pg 23 #267 is
 Oliver Perkins 26
 Elizabeth 29 wife
 Nancy J 13
 Gertrude 10

Mary A 7

John 4

Roselle 2 and John PERKINS 69 Widowed FATHER Collier b IN fbIN mbIN

To explain Oliver as a another son, he is as 26 in the 1880 census born therefore c 1854. He m early at age 13, since his oldest dau Nancy was 13 when he was 26. He missed the 1850 census , not born yet, and had moved out by the 1870 census. Also, when he married a second time on 8 Mar 1901 he stated his mother's maiden name was Elizabeth LEE.(From the Marriage Records State of Michigan County of Van Buren Book C2 March 1901).

I think I'll stop for now. Will send the rest later today.

Great Stuff, I am loving it. Thank you

Looked in my Perkins file and found something I wanted to ask you about - but anyone with the answer can jump in.

Isaac's and Sarah's daughter, Chloe A. was married to an Unknown Custer? and had a son named Oliver A. My records show that family lore has Oliver as being on the first Byrd Expedition to the South Pole in 1947/48. Do you, or anyone else, know about this?

Also, my file shows that Cindy/Cinderella was married to a Tom Standsberry and she lived to be 102.

The above information received during interviews from an elderly aunt in 1980. She is still alive but does not remember anymore. -- Ed
